Leahy Urges Stronger Navy INVASION OF U. S. TERMED HAZARDOUS

Wright Says
Slain Wife
Extravagant

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(UP)—

Admiral William D. Leahy, chief of naval operations, testified today that it would be "extremely hazardous" for an Asiatic power to attempt invasion of the United States even with a naval force equal to ours.

Leahy added, however, that naval parity would "not be as good a provision for safety against attack as if we had a stronger navy."

The navy's ranking admiral was questioned by Rep. Ralph O. Brewster, R., Me., on President Roosevelt's recommendation for a 20 per cent increase in the potential fighting strength of the U. S. Fleet.

HERMAN STERN, PIONEER, DEAD

Herman Stern, 67, prominent Orange county business man and real estate operator for the past 50 years, resident of Lincoln Avenue, Anaheim, died at his home today after a brief illness.

Funeral services will be held at Backs, Terry and Campbell funeral chapel, Anaheim, at 2 p.m. Saturday, other funeral arrangements to be announced later.

With his brother, Gustave, now of Los Angeles, general mercantile stores were started in Fullerton and Anaheim, Herman Stern being in charge of the Anaheim store. The Anaheim store was located at Los Angeles and Center streets.

For a time, after giving up the mercantile business, Mr. Stern was in retirement, then he established an implement business at Chartres and Los Angeles streets, and, in 1930, a real estate office on East Center street.

Active Lodge Member

At time of his death, Mr. Stern was still active in real estate circles. He was a member of Masonic, Elks club, Odd Fellows lodge and, at one time, Knights of Pythias. As captain in the National Guards in 1906, he went to San Francisco to help during the earthquake disaster; he managed the Anaheim Orange Show at one time.

Survivors are his wife, Olga E. Stern; three children, Kathryn Stern, Roger and Gilbert Stern, all of Anaheim; two brothers, Gustave, Siegfried, Germany, and three sisters, Mesdames Melvina Cohen, Clara Frankel and Minna Strauss, all of Germany.

NEED SIGN LANGUAGE

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 3.—(UP)—

A Hungarian bride and her Tia Juana, Mex., husband were honeymooning today after a wedding ceremony performed by a rabbi in English and Hebrew — tongues neither understood.

They were Elizabeth Komlos, survivors only her native tongue, and Alex Weiss, who speaks Spanish and Hungarian and a little German. The bride arrived from Budapest but three days ago.

PROMINENT RUSSIAN VICTIM OF BOMBING

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Feb. 3.—(UP)—

Ivan Mihailoff, secretary of the Russian Emigre newspaper Golos Rossi, was blown to pieces today when he opened a mailed parcel containing a bomb.

The editor, Boris Solovitch, was slightly injured and his wife seriously.

The paper is a secondary publication appearing irregularly. Its offices are in a three room flat in the outskirts of the city.

The explosion occurred in the office room where the secretary was sorting the mail, while the editor and his wife, who live in the flat, were in an adjoining room.

OLD GEYSERS HOTEL IS RAZED BY BLAZE

CLOVERDALE, Calif., Feb. 3.—(UP)—Fire, believed caused by a landslide, destroying the Old Geysers hotel 50 miles northeast of here last night, it was learned here today. The hotel was built in 1848.

Twenty WPA workers who had established headquarters in the building were eating in the recreation hall when the fire broke out. All escaped without injury.

Meager reports to county officials indicated that a landslide crashed into the old building, breaking an oil feed line to the kitchen and causing an explosion which started the fire.

TAMPERING AND CONFLICT MARK CURTIS TRIAL

Testimony of tampering with prosecution witnesses, and conflicting admissions of the woman defendant, Mrs. Louise Carr, marked yesterday's trial of W. A. Curtis and Mrs. Carr, charged with grand theft of $700 from Mrs. Florence Risk, Tustin widow, to whom they allegedly sold worthless oil leases in New Mexico.

Mrs. Carr, on the stand in her own defense, testified that she was merely a driver for Curtis, employed at $25 per week plus gas and oil; that she had no connection with the sealing of leases. She denied that she had worked in a real estate office with Curtis in Los Angeles.

Admits Action

On cross-examination, however, the prosecution obtained an admission that she had actually applied for a salesmen's license on the same day as Curtis, and that both were employed in the same office. Her work, it was admitted, was to bring prospects into the office for Curtis to close the deals.

In testifying that she is 58 years of age, and telling of her three marriages, first to a man named Pyne, then to Carr and later to Powelson, Mrs. Carr disclosed an amazing circumstance. Before telling her age, she had said that she married Pyne in 1888 or 1889, which would have made her 8 or 9 years of age at that time.

Mrs. Risk Called

Mrs. Risk, called to the stand by the defense, admitted on cross-examination by Deputy District Attorney J. Eugene Walker that Curtis' wife had approached her and offered to pay her for dropping her complaint against Curtis. The appeal was made on behalf of the Curtis children, the witness said. She admitted that she didn't want to prosecute.

Mrs. Edith Brown, widow of former Coroner Charles D. Brown, also gave evidence of tampering. When questioned by the prosecutor, she said, reluctantly, that Mrs. Carr had met in a courthouse corridor Tuesday morning and instructed her that she was to testify that Mrs. Carr was only Curtis' driver, on his business trips.

Motions Denied

Mrs. Iona Sharp, 825 Riverine, Santa Ana, testified for the prosecution that Mrs. Carr had told her Curtis made $5000 for her. Mrs. Carr, on one deal, Mrs. Sharp, who said she had purchased an oil lease herself, testified that after she had testified at the preliminary hearing of Curtis and Mrs. Carr she had received her lease, but that it covered property in a different township than that she had selected.

When the prosecution rested, the defense moved to strike the testimony of nine prosecution witnesses, and to dismiss the complaint on the ground that there was no evidence of conspiracy, nor aiding and abetting, against Mrs. Carr, and that there was no proof Curtis had made material representations to Mrs. Risk, or that such representations, if made, were false. Both motions were denied.

ABBEY IS NAMED ADMINISTRATOR

Public Administrator Earl R. Abbey today emerged winner of a three-cornered contest for appointment as administrator of the $7000 estate left by the late Joseph M. Herring, of Santa Ana, who died December 22.

Superior Judge G. K. Scovel who, on January 21, heard the contest between the public administrator; Henry J. Herring, Minnesota, brother of the deceased; and Mrs. Edna M. Schweiger, sister-in-law of the deceased, ruled today the estate had been separate property of the deceased; that Mrs. Schweiger, as a relative of the wife, was not entitled to share in the estate, and also was not a bona fide resident of California, therefore not entitled to act as administratrix; that the brother, Henry Herring, is not a resident of the state, further that he is 83 years of age and not mentally competent to act. The court appointed Abbey administrator.

Mrs. Schweiger, who gave a Santa Ana address, claimed to be a bona fide resident of the state, and also contended that she was an heir, on the ground that the estate was community property of Herring and her sister.

ATLANTA GIRL MAY EXTEND PATTY BERG

CORAL GABLES, Fla.—(UP)—Patty Berg, of Minneapolis, fighting for her third straight Miami-Biltmore women's golf title, today meets Dorothy Kirby, women's Southern champion, in an 18-hole semi-finals match.

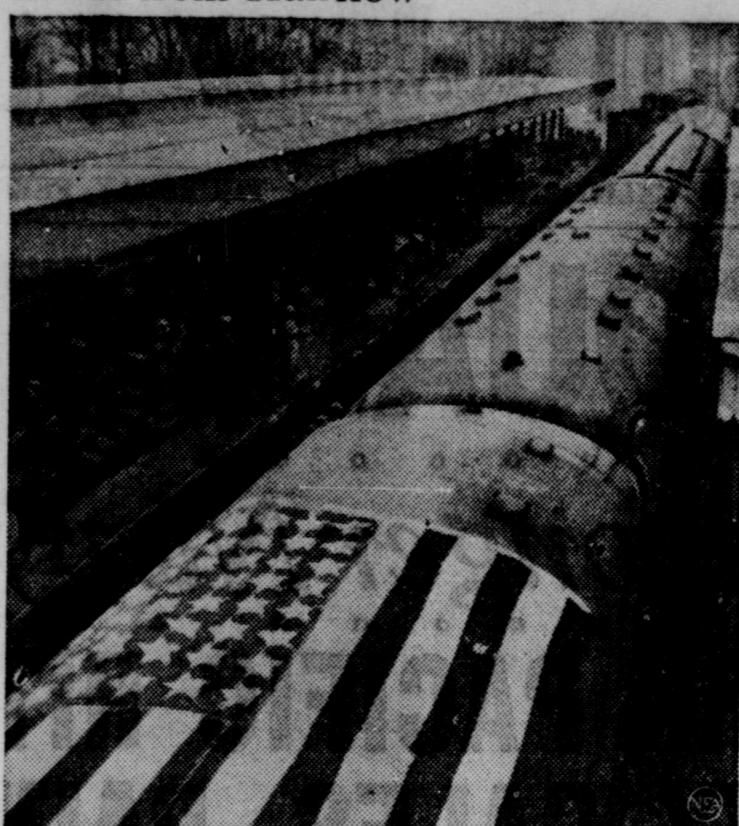

Patty is expected to be forced to the limit by Miss Kirby, who turned in a 76, an all-time women's competitive low for the Miami-Biltmore course, yesterday. The Atlanta girl shot her record round to upset Marion McCoy of Lexington, Ky., 2 and 1.

NEBRASKANS TO DINE

Former residents of Belvidere, Neb., will meet in a potluck dinner at 12:30 p.m. Saturday at Jack Fisher Park. A program has been arranged for the occasion.

Carrying their children on their shoulders while Chinese refugees staggered under huge packs of household goods, these foreign residents of Hankow, China—part of 1200 fled to the railroad station before the advance of Japanese armies. Note the soldier guarding the train steps.

Under the protection of huge flags, British, German, French and the American banner draped over this train, the 1200 refugees sped to Hongkong the British crown colony. The "flag trains" were chartered by leading businessmen and consular authorities of Hankow as an "international transportation committee."

NORTHERN PACIFIC SWEEP BY STORMS

Seven linemen who started from Quincy in the Plumbus county national forest, to repair storm broken telephone lines, have been unreported since they were caught in a blizzard Monday. One of the men was known to have collapsed with frozen feet and was being carried by a partner.

Efforts to reach Quincy have proved futile, both from Reno, Nev., and San Francisco. Six feet of snow covered the mountains in the Quincy area, while high winds piled huge drifts across road, cutting off all travel. Several towns were isolated by disrupted communications.

Predict More Rain

The U. S. weather bureau forecast more rain and snow in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada and Idaho tonight, with prospects of clearing weather in California tomorrow.

Last night more than an inch of rain, accompanied by occasional hailstorms, fell in many sections of California.

Storm warnings were posted again from Fort Bragg, Calif., to Cape Flattery, Wash.

Trains Blocked

The coastwide storm last night and today caused snow and earth slides that disrupted traffic over two Southern Pacific routes—the overland route and the San Francisco-Los Angeles coast route—the company announced today. Trains were delayed from 25 minutes to four hours.

A fast mail train roaring westbound behind a rotary plow stuck off such a heavy volume of snow that it buried a freight train on the eastbound track at Immigrant Gap on the overland route in the Sierra.

Slide Buries Train

Rumbling of the mail train also precipitated a snow slide that further trapped the freight train. Traffic over the eastbound track was blocked. Eastbound trains were diverted over the westbound track, slowing up Sierra traffic. Delayed trains included the Chicago-bound Overland Limited and Challenger.

An earth slide at Betabet, 11 miles west of Watsonville Junction delayed four Los Angeles-San Francisco trains until 6 a.m. when the obstruction was cleared.

FLOODS THREATEN ESTATE STATES

Unseasonably warm weather and heavy rains, carried eastward by gales from the Pacific coast, brought new flood dangers to northern Illinois today.

The midwestern cold wave was broken but freezing temperatures prevailed on the eastern seaboard. Government engineers feared that a sudden rise in temperatures would loose a potential flood stored in an 80-mile stretch of thick ice on the Rock river from Rockford, Ill., to the Mississippi.

PAULERINO WOMAN CALLED BY DEATH

A resident of Paulerino for more than 16 years, Mrs. Lydia N. Clayton, 52, died yesterday after an illness lasting nearly two months. Mrs. Clayton was born in Hutchinson, Kans.

Mrs. Clayton was the mother of Mrs. Marvin Purcell, Gladewater, Texas, and Kenneth Clayton, of Paulerino.

Other survivors are: two sisters, Mrs. Alice Martin, Canoga Park, Calif., and Mrs. Jessie McMillen, Hutchinson, Kans.; and six brothers, James W. and Andrew J. Shiffrer, Hutchinson, Kans.; J. N. Shiffrer, Long Beach, Charles D. Shiffrer, and John G. Shiffrer, Gardena, and J. W. Shiffrer of Paulerino.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, with the Rev. E. A. Moody of Garden Grove in charge. Interment will be made at Huntington Beach cemetery. Mrs. Clayton was a member of the Methodist church of Greenville and the missionary society, and served as past president of the Parent-Teacher association.

A papirus more than 33 centuries old mentions the camel as a beast of burden.

CAT O' NINE TAILS TELLS TALE

John Brown, Jr., 3-year-old son of a Baltimore steel worker, bares his back to show the welts left by the cat-o'-nine-tails with which Mrs. Brown, left, says the boy's father beat him. Brown was ordered held in $2500 bail for grand jury action after admitting he whipped his son.

COAST GUARDSMEN RESCUE MAN TRAPPED ON ISOLATED ROCKS

LOWELL, Mass., Feb. 3.—(UP)—A man trapped for nearly eight hours on a clump of rocks in the middle of the swiftly-running Merrimack river, was rescued in a breeches buoy by coast guardsmen today.

Identified as Walter Giblin, a musician, about 30, he was hurried to St. Joseph hospital here. He was only partly conscious and his condition was reported poor.

His dark overcoat was frozen stiff and his face and hands were almost black from exposure to a 10-degree temperature.

Father Joins Son

The roar of the rapids had prevented any communication during the rescue attempts. His father, John J. Giblin, Lowell high school bandmaster, joined the youth at the hospital.

Only one hour before he was pulled to shore in the breeches buoy, Giblin had grabbed a guide line and tumbled into the water. He managed to swim to another rock, however, and this time waited until Surfer Harold Manchester reached him in the buoy.

Giblin was lying semi-conscious on the rock when Manchester arrived. Manchester picked him up and strapped him in the harness of the breeches buoy. Fellow-guardsmen hauled the youth to shore, then sent the breeches buoy back for Manchester.

COURSE HEAVY FOR SACRAMENTO'S GOLF

SACRAMENTO — (UP) — More than 130 starters awaited clearing skies today for the $3000 Sacramento Open golf championship which opens tomorrow at the municipal course.

There was a possibility of a postponement until Saturday, officials admitted, should the heavy downpour which has inundated the upper Sacramento valley continue. Weather forecasters, however, promised cessation of the showers by tonight.

All the long hitters, who have been installed as favorites to win the three-day event, 72-hole medal play, were here. They included Harry Cooper, the winner of the Oakland Open last Sunday; Jimmy Thompson, winner of the Los Angeles Open last month, Horton Smith, considered by many experts the finest putter in the game, and Sam Snead, one of the big money winners of 1937.

Several entrants braved the soggy course for practice yesterday. Best card was turned in by Frank Toronto, Sacramento Golf club amateur who shot a 75, three over par.

THE DEAD

The men reported dead included:

Lieut. Elmer Glen Cooper, (wife Frances) Coronado, Calif.

Cadet Erwin John Koch, (mother, Mrs. John H. Koch) Toledo, Ohio.

Joe Earl Walton, aviation machinist's mate, 2nd class, (wife, Mary), San Diego.

Maurice John Fitzmaurice, chief aviation machinist's mate, (wife, Victoria), El Cajon, Calif.

George Gordon Griffith, machinist's mate, 1st class, (wife, Sadie), San Diego.

Julian Rawls, radioman, 2nd class, (wife, Julia), Chula Vista, Calif.

William Hall Landgrave, aviation machinist's mate, 2nd class, (father of John F. Landgrave), Stillwell, Ind.

J. H. Hester, radioman, 1st class, (wife, Mamie), San Diego.

(All of the above were aboard plane number 3.)

Those from plane 4 were:

Lieut. Carlton Barmore Hutchins, (wife, Elizabeth), Coronado, Calif.

John Gregory Marion Neidweck, aviation machinist's mate, 1st class.

William Woodruff, aviation chief machinist's mate, (wife, Ruth), San Diego.

Three Survived

The survivors, all injured, were: D. B. McKay, aviation chief machinist's mate, (wife, Mrs. Donald McKay), San Diego, fractured leg.

V. O. Hatfield, (no record yet of kin or home), extensive cuts on right leg.

L. S. Carpenter, aviation machinist's mate, (wife, Violet, San Diego), broken arm and shock.

Search All Night

Under personal leadership of Admiral Claude C. Bloch, new commander-in-chief of the battle fleet, a search went on nightlong and was continued today for bodies of the 10 killed outright. Eight bodies were recovered.

Only fragments of wreckage marked the waters where the two planes struck.

Admiral Bloch issued the following statement:

"While engaged in exercises at 7 p.m. last night, patrol planes 11P2 and 11P4 collided in mid-air during a sudden rain squall at Lat. 32°19', Long. 18°39' in view of and close to several battleships and 20 destroyers."

"Plane No. 3 crashed in flames and No. 4 spun into the water and broke up."

"All vessels in the vicinity turned on searchlights and lowered boats. A boat from the Pennsylvania (dreadnaught which is flagship for the fleet) recovered four survivors from Plane No. 4 and placed them aboard the Tennessee (another battleship) which proceeded at high speed to the hospital relief ship which was anchored at Pyramid Cove (San Clemente Island navy base). The extent of the injuries is not known."

"Searchlights of the fleet, 98 fighting ships massed in a giant maneuver, spattered the dark all night. At dawn 300 airplanes from the aircraft carriers Lexington and Saratoga and the larger warships were ordered into the air to help search."

Navy's Largest

The wrecked bombers were of the PBV type, the largest the navy uses and among the most powerful fighting aircraft in the world. They were 105 foot wingspread, powered by two motors, with top speed of 165 miles an hour, and able to fly 4000 miles non-stop. Such planes carry a six to seven man crew.

They were sister ships of the craft that have been making spectacular hops to Hawaii, Panama and Seattle recently.

Investigation showed the tanks, pulled from a pool table at the Broadway pool hall when a new cover was placed on the table, had been dumped into a trash container, the container apparently warping in the rain and allowing the tanks to fall out.

It is estimated that 44,000 thunderstorms occur daily on the earth.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stone, of El Modena, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Branson.

The Magnolia Farmers 4-H club met recently with their leader, J. B. Beavers for election of officers. Clair Wakeham was elected president; J. C. Beavers, vice president; Calvin Pebley, secretary and treasurer; Eddie Baker, reporter. It was planned to take a trip to the snow the latter part of February.

Navy's Worst Disaster

These airboats recently took over the scouting functions of the destroyers, which were transferred to the battle force. The navy has accepted delivery on approximately 100 of them and is equipping the Honolulu and Canal Zone bases with large complements of them.

It was said unofficially that this was the worst air disaster the navy has suffered with other than dirigibles.

A sister ship of the two in last night's crash vanished with seven aboard over the sea last month. It was flying off the coast on the navy's "security patrol."

Because he wishes to obtain the services of Attorney John Martell and because he has not completed a deal to sell his business, Dr. S. W. Wallace, Santa Ana dentist, today was allowed until February 7 at 2 p.m. to answer to his arraignment on petty theft charges before Justice Kenneth Morrison.

Two counts of petty theft were filed against Dr. Wallace. H. A. Bradley alleged the doctor kept $20 worth of dental gold and platinum which belonged to Bradley, while John Hunt alleged the doctor owes him $70.50 for labor.

MCMILLAN—At his home near Midway City, Feb. 2, 1938, James McMullan, aged 83 years. A resident of Orange county for 57 years. Father of Mrs. Radcliffe Bauer, 1, Boca Raton; Mrs. Gladys Marion and Donald M. McMullan of Midway City, and Mrs. Agnes Taggart, of Long Beach. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. from Smith and Tuthill's chapel, Rev. A. E. Moody officiating.

MAYOR, OTHERS COMMENT

"Such an airport here would bring much benefit to the community," Mayor Fred C. Rowland said, "but of course, we have no detailed information as yet from government officials."

Councilmen Ernest Layton, Joe Smith and William Penn said they favored such an airport if Santa Ana could provide a reasonable share of the funds to pay costs. "We could not pay the cost alone," was the opinion of both. Councilman Plummer Bruns would back the WPA in strictly confidential way, of airport locations the department would like to see developed; so that WPA would be charitably inclined if and when local projects for airport development in those places, as presented.

Robert W. Barnes

"The defense program actually is a highly confidential one and Santa Ana is but one of 200 places where the department wants such airports eventually."

The war department has advised the WPA, in strictly confidential way, of airport locations the department would like to see developed; so that WPA would be charitably inclined if and when local projects for airport development in those places, as presented.

DEATH NOTICES

CLAYTON—In Santa Ana, Feb. 2, 1938, Lydia N. Clayton, aged 52 years, mother of Mrs. Margaret Purcell of Gladewater, Texas; Kenneth Clayton of Paulinario, Calif.; sister of James W. and Andrew J. Shiffer and Mrs. Jessie McMullan of Midway City, and Mrs. M. Shiffer, of Long Beach; Charles D. Shiffer and John G. Shiffer, of Gardena, Calif.; Mrs. Alice Martin, of Van Nuys Park, Calif.; and a great nephew, Pauline. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 3:30 p.m. from Smith and Tuthill's chapel, Rev. A. E. Moody officiating.

DAVIS—In Brawley, February 1, 1938, Mrs. Laura S. Davis, of 920 North Sycamore street, Santa Ana. She is survived by her mother, James R. Chilson, of Grand Marais, Michigan; one nephew, Carl Lott, of Los Angeles; one niece, Mrs. J. Post, of Brawley, and a great nephew, Pauline. Funeral services will be held at the Wimberger Mortuary, Chapel, 609 North Main street, Friday, February 4, at 9 a.m., followed by private cremation at Fairhaven cemetery.

TAVERN POST IN CAMPUS DEBUT

Tavern Post, Santa Ana Junior college literary magazine, was being distributed on the campus today, culminating months of work by Editor Catherine Cooper and her staff.

Twenty-six students contributed their original poems and prose to the publication which is printed twice each year. The Post is published by the Tavern Tattlers, literary society on the campus, and represents the work of the students.

Contributors Listed

Contributors include Laurence G. Thompson, Anne Sinnott, Constance Crane, Floyd Ellers, Roy Potter, James Bartlett, Elmer Meyer, Muir Snyder, Stanley Slaback, Margaret Clinton, Lucille Yensen, Mary Muhall, Les Huhn, Bruce Buell, June Holman, Barbara Knuth, Charles Sayers, Ruth Budd, Jack Baker, Marjorie Vollmer, Chester Wafford, Alberta Metzgar, Jack Wood, Mary Emma Malcom, and Jack Gardner.

The staff consisted of Editor Cooper and Associates Freda Wagner, Barbara Knuth, Delpha Wolpert, Margaret Clinton, and Stanley Slaback. James Bartlett was business manager, while Betty West was art editor.

CITY OFFICIALS WILLING IF U.S. SELECTS SITE

Development of an airport at Santa Ana suitable for use as an emergency or auxiliary base for army airplanes as part of the war department's long range plan for national defense today gained tentative approval of Santa Ana city council.

The war department's "dream airport" for Santa Ana would be a municipal project rather than a commercial enterprise, so as to be more readily available for government use if necessary, a discussion disclosed.

Extensive Outlay

All of the councilmen were enthusiastic over such an airport construction program but admitted the project would be too large for Santa Ana to finance without government assistance.

According to a plan outlined in Washington, D. C., yesterday, the airport here would be a mile square with approaches unobstructed by trees, buildings or other structures. It would be graded and drained and would have at least two runways and a landing apron. The whole field would be suitable for use in all weather. It would have radio communications equipment day and night.

Confidential Affair

Santa Ana's presence of the list of airports desired does not mean Congress is to be asked for any money by the war department. Nor does it mean Santa Ana definitely will have the airport—it depends upon the city's own approval.

The defense program actually is a highly confidential one and Santa Ana is but one of 200 places where the department wants such airports eventually.

The war department has advised the WPA, in strictly confidential way, of airport locations the department would like to see developed; so that WPA would be charitably inclined if and when local projects for airport development in those places, as presented.

Reaches Smart Clip

The situation had reached a smart clip yesterday afternoon as the result of the action on the part of a barber in the south section of the city, who left a jagged hole in the union price scale, Johnson explained.

Then, the matter became matted when another barber cut his prices lower than the first reduction.

Johnson this morning added that all prices had bobbed back on the same scale as before—50 cents for adults and 35 cents for children—and so it's smooth shaving here from now on."

Army's New Cabin Plane

The first plane of its kind, the metal-skinned Lockheed monoplane above was designed to U. S. Army specifications as a flying laboratory for the study of personnel and equipment problems in the stratosphere, five miles above sea level. The cabin is arranged to make possible sea level pressure and oxygen content at high altitudes.

SMOOTH-SHAVING AHEAD FOR CITY AS PRICES BOB IN PLACE

It's a smooth shave and steady hands for haircuts in Santa Ana today—all because trouble that threatened yesterday when one union razor wielder threatened to slash prices to ribbons, had been clipped off short today.

HELLIS HEADS CITRUS GROUP

Belief that the bandit who held up and robbed Bartender B. R. Turned at the Three-O-Two cocktail bar, Third and Main streets, early Tuesday morning, of $70, had other intended victims here, about the same time, was expressed to day when it was revealed by Fred R. Jacobs of the Jacobs Pharmacy, First and Main streets, that a man answering the description exactly of the bandit, appeared at his place.

"The man appeared at my store and ordered a beer," the druggist said. "Then, he loitered around for a while, looking the place over. Then he asked me how business was. When I told him business was bad, he left almost immediately."

Extend Investigation

Santa Ana police are investigating further, regarding the visit, purportedly made to the Jacobs store. Jacobs was positive, he said, that the man who paid him a visit and left, was the bandit.

"He figured I didn't have many receipts for the day, so decided to go where he might obtain a larger haul, I think," Jacobs said.

Bartender Jack Barnett of the Three-O-Two told police he believed the bandit had an accomplice or two.

"I OFTEN invest $2500 a week in tobacco—$2500 of my own hard-earned cash," says Mr. Barnes. "So you can see that the only way I've stayed in business 10 years is to know tobacco.

"Now I know Lucky Strike tobacco and it's top-grade. That's why I've smoked Luckies for eight years now.

"Lots of other independent buyers, auctioneers, and warehousemen I know smoke Luckies for the same reason."

Yes, sworn records show that, among independent tobacco experts like Mr. Barnes, Luckies have over twice as many exclusive smokers as have all the other cigarettes combined.

IT'S SOLOMAN IN THIS CASE, NOT SOLOMON, AND HE LOSES!

Not even the wisdom of Solomon could save Ernest C. Kilgore, C.C.C. youth at Camp Elsinore, from paying a fine for speeding.

Arrested January 12, by Officer Frances Norton, at La Veta and Santa Ana boulevard, who charged that Kilgore was going 70 miles an hour in a 45-mile zone, Kilgore pleaded not guilty.

Kilgore appeared before Judge J. G. Mitchell in court yesterday and was represented by John W. Soloman, C. C. C. camp commander and attorney. Soloman declared that Kilgore had been driving 55 miles an hour and was carrying an emergency passenger.

Plea Is Changed

City Attorney Lew Blodget called Norton to the stand who testified that his speedometer had registered 70. Judge Mitchell fined Kilgore $35, to be paid in $5 installments.

Rex Whittemore, Fourth and Spurgeon streets, arrested on a charge of assault and battery signed by Louis Sellin, was given a 30-day suspended sentence on condition he refrain from molesting Sellin. Henry E. Delaney, Orange, changed his plea of not guilty to guilty and was sentenced to 75 days in the county jail on a charge of drunk driving.

Chicken Case Settled

"The chicken case," in which Kate Meason charged Manuel Ybarra and Juan Carraza, both of Delhi, of permitting their chickens to wander in her grain field, was settled yesterday in city court when Judge Mitchell found the defendants guilty and gave them a suspended sentence of 30 days in the county jail. Ybarra and Carraza agreed to keep their chickens on their own property in the future.

Twenty-three illegal parking citations and two speeders completed the activity of the court. The speeders, John Magara, Route 4, Santa Ana; and Dell Beard, 424 South Sycamore street, were fined $6 each.

Officer Called In 'Lights Out' Case

It was "lights out" for Vincent Morales and his wife Maria, at their cafe and poolroom at Atwood last night when they quarreled, Deputy Sheriffs Fred Swaze and Ed Hoffman reported to day.

The officers were summoned as the result of peace-loving tendencies on the part of G. Autry, also of Atwood, the former related. The cafe and poolroom and four cafe patrons were left in darkness when Morales, the officer said, wanted his wife to close the cafe for the evening and she did not heed his desires. So Morales pulled the switch that controls lights in both places, and darkness reigned until the officers investigated.

"He figured I didn't have many receipts for the day, so decided to go where he might obtain a larger haul, I think," Jacobs said.

SCHOOL OPENS FOR DISABLED

Superintendent of Schools Frank A. Henderson today announced the opening of a department of vocational training for physically disabled persons. This service is being offered under a cooperative plan between the local school district and the state department of education.

For those individuals eligible for this training the state department of education will finance the cost of training and assist in securing employment. Henderson stated financial status of the individual is not a consideration. Eligibility for this service is based upon the following federal regulations:

Lists Requirements

"Any person sixteen years or over, who, by reason of physical defect or infirmity, whether congenital or acquired by accident, injury or disease, is, or may be expected to be, totally or partially incapacitated for remunerative occupations, and who may reasonably be expected to be fit to engage in a remunerative occupation after completing a vocational rehabilitation course."

Those further wishing further information, should Henderson, should telephone William Dohr, district co-ordinator, telephone 4868, or write him in care of the Board of Education, 1012 North Main street, Santa Ana.

HOME REMODELED

SMELTZER, Feb. 3.—Work of remodeling their home which they recently moved from the Woodington ranch to lots in the Smeltzer tract has been started by Mr. and Mrs. Jake Grana. Contractors are now on the job and the owners expect to be relocated in their home within three weeks. The house will be re-roofed, porches will be added, a new garage built and the building will be repainted.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Caused by Tired Kidneys

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backache people caused on cold or strains are often caused by tired kidneys. They may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. Most people have about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work, poisonous waste master stays in the blood. These poisons may cause nagging backache, rheumatism, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Do you know? Ask your druggist for Dean's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poison waste from the blood. Get Dean's Pills.

Prominent Race Drivers Testing New Hudson 112

Four Hudson 112 cars, off on a 10,000-mile test run, each piloted by a famous race driver. Inset shows the four race drivers who are testing the new Hudson 112. Left to right: Babe Stapp, Ira Vail, J. E. Schipper, Director of Public Relations, Hudson Motor Car Company, Chet Miller and Ted Horn.

Four of America's leading race drivers, Babe Stapp, Ted Horn, Chet Miller and Ira Vail are out on their next regular meeting to be held Monday night, February 7 at 7:00 p. m. We have booked for the occasion Dr. R. M. Carrigan of Los Angeles, and as an alternate, Senator Nathan W. Hale, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Leave your subscription for The Register at the Townsend Headquarters, 509 West 4th street, with Miss J. Etta Bryant.

In addition to the big oyster supper at Garden Grove and listening to fine address of the Townsend plan by Rev. Tucker, Mrs. Cora Smith, president of the club reports that they took in several new members and filled up another petition requesting the state legislature to memorialize congress to adopt the Townsend Plan into a constitution amendment to the United States Constitution.

E. F. Millard, 1852 West 17th-

Doolittle, 820 North Flower, and
W. F. Rockwell, Witt Apartments,
Sycamore and 3rd street, are busy men these days in handling Townsend hall advertisements.

Word from Seal Beach says the Townsend club of that city is showing signs of revival, and the active members are soon going to stage a comeback.

Dr. Francis E. Townsend has urged all Townsend Club members to write to the state senator and assemblyman of their districts urging that they request of Gov.
Frank F. Merriam to include in his call the matter of considering the petitions asking the state legislature to memorialize congress to take the proper steps to make the Townsend plan a constitutional amendment. For the benefit of the readers of this column let it be said that the following names and addresses are the men to whom you are requested to write: Senator
C. Westover, Exchange Building,
Santa Ana; Clyde Watson, 75th assembly district, Orange; Thomas
H. Kuchel, 74th assembly district.

EFFECT OF RAIN ON SOIL HEARD BY KIWANIS

Erosion effects of rain and flowing water were graphically shown in a series of pictures presented by Ralph W. Netterstrom, director of soil conservation service of the state department of agriculture, at the regular meeting of the Santa Ana Kiwanis club at the Masonic temple yesterday afternoon.

"Worry about the effects of soil erosion is a comparatively new thing," Netterstrom said in his remarks preceding the picture, "but the knowledge of its effects have been known since Colonial times."

Ceaseless Battle

"Millions of years were required to build fertile valleys like the San Joaquin and Santa Ana through the slow wearing down of mountain tops," Netterstrom said, "but we are allowing this fine soil to be taken to the sea by rain and wind."

"It is against these forces of Nature that we now are waging a ceaseless battle. Construction of terraces, planting of trees and soil building crops instead of complete cultivation, building of dams are the chief methods of attack in this new type of warfare," Netterstrom concluded.

Four New Members

Four new members, Curtis S. Burrow, E. A. B. Smith, Dr. Mark Lindsey and C. J. Marks, were inducted into the club by Clyde J. Rowland. Maurice Enderle, presiding at the meeting, announced a divisional meeting would be held at 6:45 p.m. Tuesday, at the Masonic temple, would take the place of the regular meeting next week.

Police Commissioner Plummer was program chairman and introduced the speaker.

SHORTHAND TO BE ADDED AT JAYSEE

"Because the demand for the course is so great," Santa Ana Junior college officials today announced the starting of a new course in beginning shorthand for the second semester.

Director D. K. Hammond added the shorthand course to the curriculum when it was discovered many new students asked to register. The class will meet at 8 a.m. daily, Hammond stated.

Miss Genevieve Humiston is the instructor who will teach the new class. She revealed that the Gregg functional method will be used. No tuition is being charged for the class and it is open to anyone who wished to join, Director Hammond added.

RELIEF CORPS REVIEWS WORK

STATE AGRICULTURE RETURNS IN 1937 SEEN BEST SINCE 1929

With recession in prices being offset by larger yields, authorities believe last year's total agricultural returns in California will be larger than in any year since 1929, reports the First National Bank in Santa Ana.

The above index of California Business, received monthly by the local bank, shows the 1937 business curve for California followed much the same pattern as for the nation; the first three quarters of the year averaging better than 10 per cent above corresponding 1936 levels; the later downturn, less sharp in this state than elsewhere in the country.

Value of Vegetables

The 1937 farm value of fruit, field, and vegetable crops in California was estimated to be $431,219,000—an increase of 7 per cent over the 1936 total, and 6 per cent below the record high for 1929.

The expenses for the year included $160,82 for flowers, $203,43 for floral sprays, $55,26 for child welfare and $3,090.07 for relief cases.

Other activities of the relief corps listed in the condensed report were: Visited schools, presented flags, observed all anniversaries and patriotic days.

HANSEN

HANSEN, Feb. 3.—Mrs. Laura Smith attended a layette shower in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Smith, of Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. O'Donnell and sons, Robert and James, and Richard Perry motored to the Mojave desert over the weekend.

Mrs. Sam Perry was visited recently by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chatfield, and sister, Miss Margaret Chatfield, of Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. Bray Hudson, of Alhambra, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fass.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Terry, of San Bernardino, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Terry.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Parra and family motored to Los Angeles Sunday to visit Mrs. Parra's mother.

WELFARE CENTER MEETS

The General Welfare Center will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in the Unitarian church, Eighth and Bush streets. Further news and discussions regarding the status of the General Welfare Act, and the much discussed "streamlined" effects that have been secured, will feature the meeting. Frank Kendall, president, invited the public to attend.

ECONOMISTS LAUD TENDER MADE HAM

Thousands of housewives who enjoy the exceptional flavor and amazing tenderness of Wilson's new secret processed tender made ham have learned to their amazement that this miracle ham is economical as well, Wilson's officials declared today.

"Although tender made ham costs a few cents more at the market, it actually costs less on the table because the cooking shrink is practically eliminated," they declare.

"A recent test made by leading home economists proved that ordinary ham shrinks from 22 to 35 per cent in cooking, whereas, Tender Made ham shrinks from one-half to one and one-half per cent."

Claremont Firm Opens New Office

Opening of offices in Santa Ana by the Claremont Building and Loan company, of Claremont, Cal., was announced today by Willard White, who has charge of the local office. The company has temporary headquarters in Room 12, Bank of America building.

White, prior to his connection with the Claremont Building and Loan company, spent four years in San Bernardino with the Security Title and Guarantee company in that city.

How could he be so stern, so cruel?

Her love, then, meant nothing to him. Yet she was not ashamed of it, not sorry she had laid her heart at his feet. She was glad and proud that she loved this man before her.

"It was a lie. Said to hurt you.

A pretense, like all the rest of my life. The part before I ran away and met you and really came to life in these hills. The part when I returned and pretended to be the richest girl in the world, again. Yes, and the most spoiled, most selfish, most unthinking. That girl was never really I. Can't you see, Bret, I would not have run away from her, seeking something, if I really had been that girl in my heart? I could not have lost that same heart to you, found the only happiness I ever knew, living the good life, the simple life with you beside me. I would not be offering you all that I have, all that I am—if what I say were not true. But as I've told you, I've grown up. I'm through pretending. I shan't change again, Bret, though you won't forgive or believe in me."

He did not say anything for a moment; then he turned toward her, and now his eyes looked into hers, deeply, searchingly, as only Bret's eyes could, causing her knees to go weak beneath her, her heart to hammer painfully.

"I told you," he said, "that I had something to tell you—that night, when you said you were going away—I wanted to tell you that I was going away; to ask you to go with me. I had secured a new contract to build a road, further west than this, but in country not unlike this, either. I wanted to ask you to build a new life with me, to make our home, together, Bret—on the top of our hill. As sure," she said, "as

New Flatbush Libretto

In typical baseball fashion, Brooklyn fans get preliminary news of their new deal from Grand Rapids, Mich., as Manager Burleigh Grimes, left, meets Larry MacPhail there for the first time since the latter took over the vice presidency and general management of the Dodgers. MacPhail and Grimes assure the Flatbush Funsters a lively libretto.

Tiger, star of the Milky Way stable, outranks the battalions of 3-year-olds assembled at Santa Anita, according to the weights released today for the San Vicente Handicap Saturday—a seven furlong prelude to the $50,000 Santa Anita Derby Feb. 22. He heads the list with 126 pounds, one pound more than the rapidly improving Sun Egret.

Only four 3-year-olds in the list of 28 nominations are weighted at 120 pounds or more, but can't wait being third in the lineup with 122, while Specify barely qualifies for the select group with 120 pounds. The San Vicente not only will prove whether or not the weights represent a correct valuation of the various contenders but if, truly run, will provide a solid favorite for the Derby.

Tiger has an excellent record as a 2-year-old and if he accepts the weight, he will be making his first start of the season. He won six races in nine starts last year, amassed a total of $54,758, but has yet to prove his ability at more than six furlongs.

Other weights follow: Legal Light, 118; Short Notice, 118; Sir Raleigh, 118; Lasator, 116; Stagehand, 115; Gallator, 115; Liberty Scout, 114; Alaskan, 114; Indian Lodge, 112; King's Heir, 112; Romany, 112; Sorte's Son, 110; Gipsy Minstrel, 110; Shamus, 110; Minus, 110; Roy T., 110; Rolling Ball, 108; Liberty Flight, 108; High Strike, 108; Basque, 106; Stimuli, 106; Rainbeam, 105; Rocco, 104; and Midwick, 104.

MERCURIO RETURNS TO JUNIOR COLLEGE

Reviving drooping Don track hopes, Captain Blas Mercurio changed his mind today about transferring to Redlands University this semester and signed up for his final season of track at Santa Ana Jaycee. He is Eastern conference high jump champion.

Weather permitting, the first official workout for the squad will be held next Monday on Poly field. Some 30 men are expected to report along with seven lettermen—Mercurio, Joe Kobayashi, Erwin Youel, Walt Opp, Harry Griffith, Les Huhn and Elson Gaebe.

Along with these lettermen are numerous newcomers to Don track who are staking in their own right. Bill Huntzler, Oceanside sprint phenom, heads the list. Les McLean, quarter miler; Frank Brooking, hurdler; Grover Miller, discus; Cy Leivermann and Jerry Nesmith, shot putters; Gilbert Baker, sprinter; Herschel Whiting, miler; Jim Johnson, 880; Harry Adams, sprinter, and Lewis Tadlock, vaultier, are other promising additions.

Coach Bill Cook said that the interclass meet will be the first official action of Don aspirants.

"We will hold the class meet the week before the Long Beach relays, which come March 5," Cook said.

RED SOX SIGN JIM WILKINS, S. A. PITCHER

Through Pacific Coast Scout Ernie Johnson, the Boston Red Sox of the American league today signed Jim Wilkins, former Santa Ana high school pitching star.

Wilkins' contract probably will be assigned to the Clarksdale, (Miss.) club of the Cotton States league, a Class C organization. Clarksdale is a Red Sox subsidiary team.

Possessor of a good fast-ball, Wilkins is believed to have good baseball possibilities. A rangy 19-year-old youngster with long arms and a smooth delivery, Wilkins was signed by Los Angeles of the Coast league while he was still in high school here. The Angels released him after Jim had spent a summer at their "farm" on Catalina Island.

HEFFRON MAY GET BALL POST

The most spirited election since the colorful reign of George Peterkin is expected to mark tonight's semi-annual meeting of the National Night Ball league at Garden Grove.

Backed by Huntington Beach and one or two other clubs, Jimmie Heffron, well known Anaheim sports writer, appears a real threat to the incumbency of President Walter Wentz.

Although Heffron himself is not a candidate of his own volition, baseball men think he'll accept if elected. Westminster and Santa Ana are believed to favor Wentz although Heffron would be acceptable to them, too. Their theory is that Wentz should be returned to office because he has been the kind of a president the managers wanted. There were wild rumors that Anaheim's new man—successor to "Angel" Billy Feistner, who pulled out of the Mother Colony in disgust yesterday—has in mind still another candidate. San Bernardino, "forgotten member" of the league, may cast the deciding ballot.

Applications from several teams are anticipated at the session which will be closed to all but accredited business managers.

OAKLAND—(UP)—Phil Brubaker, hitting the comeback trail, scored his fourth straight knockout here last night when he stopped Johnny Erjavec of Duluth, in their main event bout here. Brubaker weighed 203 pounds and Erjavec 182. Erjavec was on the floor four times before Referee Bill Burke stopped the fight and awarded Brubaker a technical knockout.

Cochran, trailing 1021 to 1200 at the start of the fifth inning yesterday, had a run of 294 to pile up 406 points against Schaefer's 300. Cochran took the sixth inning, 373 to 298.

EVEN YOUR BEST FRIENDS WON'T TELL YOU

That Jimmy Austin, beloved La- gunan, is going back to the big show this season as coach of the Chicago White Sox. Mrs. Austin's health is considerably improved, and "Pepper Jim" has sent in his signed contract.

That even if Bill Cook doesn't land at the University of Arizona coaching job vacated by "Tex" Oliver the position at least may be filled by a "synthetic" Santa Anan. Leo Calland of San Diego State is a front flight contender, and don't forget it. Coach Calland married a Santa Ana girl, often summers here.

That Coach Harold Lang of Fullerton jaysee says he has four sprinters on his track team who run 100 yards in 10 seconds or better. "But what of it?" he asks. "They won't even place against Ringers."

That Tex Oliver will choose for his assistant and fresh coaches at Oregon. He may fool everybody and keep on Mike Mikau and Gene Shields, but that isn't very likely.

That Louie Neva Novikoff has signed a Los Angeles contract that calls for $175 a month, plus $75 per month if he "makes good." In other words, if he sticks with the Angels. Gossip is that Larupin Lou is ticketed for Molino, an Angel farm, for the Seraphs have seven other outfielders on their roster—Arnold Statz, Marvin Gudat, Johnny Moore, Milton Galatas, Bob Hargrave, Paul Carpenter and Mike Christoff. All but Christoff have had more experience than the former softball sultant.

That something may be doing out at the Orange County Athletic club before long. Two or three different deals are on the make with Promoter Sam Sampson willing to sell—if and when.

That the Bill Foote's haven't named their baby son yet; you see he was supposed to have been she.

That big, bold bookies are getting big-hearted. Instead of 15, 6 and 3, they're now paying off winners here at the odds of 20, 8 and 4.

That despite Tom Gwynne's trouble during the past 10 days, The Register handicapper is still near the top of Santa Anita's brain-trust and still in the running for his fourth successive "meet" championship. But his second-quarter dive dropped him from first to sixth place. Here's how the 'cappers were running at the end of the first half:

My folks always have lived here and I wanted to pick a college near home," DeCorrevont said. "I was lucky enough to play on a great high school team and some of the boys who helped my long runs possibly are going up there too."

"Naturally I wanted to be with them."

Tackles Alf Bauman, Center Don Johnson, Guard Charley Feingarten and Quarterback "Sonny" Skor who played with DeCorrevont at Austin high school on Chicago's West side for four years all said they were headed toward Northwestern.

Bill's first thought was for the schools he had to pass up.

"Take some of the pressure off it, will you, boys?" he laughed.

DeCorrevont is a hard worker, head led, but his friends say he's stubborn. Lynn Waldorf, Northwestern's head coach, may have stiff problem on his hands coaching the polished prepster. DeCorrevont's coaches have been telling him more by suggestion than actual demonstration and he liked the suggestion he would put it into practice.

DAIRYMEN EXTEND WIN STREAK TO 16

Running their Y. M. C. A. league winning streak to 16 straight, Wilson's Dairy basketball team last night defeated the Southern Counties Gas company, 32-10, in the feature of a triple-header.

In the other games, Irvine swamped East Mетодист, 42-32, and the Barr Lumber company won from Patterson's Dairy, 30-26.

Charles (Chuck) Denio, Wilson guard, was high man of the evening with 16 points scored against the "Gas House." Asa Herren and Letroy (Club) Sears of Irvine connected for 14 apiece against M. E. South.

Stepping a wee bit out of their class, Montgomery Ward and the Excelsior Creamery company attempted to stop Al's Lock and Key Shop and Church of Brethren in tonight's double-header.

Al's Keymen apparently have a little too much on the ball for the Wardmen in the 7:15 encounter and the churchmen should have little trouble stopping the Excelsior in the 8:30 game. Tonight's matches conclude the fifth week of the semi-final with Wilson's Dairy still outclassing the pack.

Predict Record For Malott In First 440

STANFORD UNIVERSITY—“Ray Malott will break the world's record in the quarter mile in Stanford's first meet of the season.” The speaker, of course, was Robert Lyman (Dink) Templeton discussing the prospects of his eighteenth Indian track and field team.

Templeton is the All-Time All-America optimist of the coaching profession. Nor can any of Dink's predictions, no matter how radical, be taken lightly, for the Indian mentor has a habit of making them come true. Last year the critics said the Stanford team just wouldn't do. Robert Lyman disagreed and proceeded to juggle a few men so successfully that the Redskins defeated California and gave Southern California a terrific battle in dual meets; won the West Coast Relays; “finished a point behind the Trojans in the conference meet and a close second at the N. C. A. A.

Gone from that small collection of iron men are “Tiger” Alexander, Bill McCurdy, Jim Reynolds, Jack Weiershauser, and others, but Templeton is not discouraged. He's serious in his statement about Malott, “the Fullerton picture runner” who did 47.1 last year. Ray has looked impressive in practice sessions and might very well crack Ben Eastman's mark of 46.4.

Zagari Visualized As Champ Templeton isn't through yet. He visualizes Pete Zagar as a threat to the world's record in the discus. Zagar was knocking the white dust off the 160-foot line on many throws at the end of last season and won the N. C. A. A. title. Dink expects to see Stan Hiserman, even-time sprinter last year, develop into a better low hurdler than Weiershauser. He figures Bill Hawkins of Santa Ana, who ran 14.8 last season, will do at least 14.4 in the high hurdles.

The Indian coach names Russ Wulff as the greatest sophomore high jump prospect he has ever had and he isn't forgetting Bob King, who won the altitude test at the 1928 Olympic Games. Wulff cleared 6'4 as a freshman.

There are some events over which even Dink can't be overly optimistic. Spring prospects look just fair. In addition to Hiserman, there are Carew, Curtis, Sparling, Hickingbotham and Casey. Carew did 10.1 and 22.1 a year ago. Curtis, as a freshman ran 10 flat and 22 flat. Sparling led the yearling dash men with 10.1 and 22.1. Hickingbotham is reporting for the first time but has shown distinct promise. Casey is a transfer from Pomona junior college.

Mahurin In 440

Carl Mahurin, classy half-miler of a year ago, may be used in the 440 in which he has done 48.8.

Dink will have to do some fancy juggling in the mile and 880. Mahurin stepped the shorter distance in 1:55 last season. Then there is Ed Burrows, two-miler for the past two years, who can turn in a neat 880; Malott, who ran 1:57 two years ago; Barney Ferguson, a 2:01 runner from the frosh; and “Rusty” March, capable of 1:57 or better. Burrows and March are the only real hopes in the mile. The former ran 4:22 last year and the latter 4:26.

John Emanuel, diminutive sophomore, made the two miles with his 9:48 in practice last fall. Paul Ganahl, a transfer, has turned the eight laps in 10:10 and Jack Beaman in 10 minutes flat.

In addition to Hawkins in the high hurdles, Templeton will have John Hewitt and Dick Simpson. Hewitt equalled Hawkins' best, 14.8, a year ago. Simpson is the best prospect to come up from a freshman team in years, although he did no better than 15.1.

Hewitt has topped the low hurdles in 24 flat. Hawkins and Simpson have beaten 25. Doug Albert has run 24.4 and Cy Oberg out because of illness last season, might be the best of the lot. Hiserman's top performance to date is 24.9.

Shot Putters Improving Tom Montgomery leads the shot putters with his 50 feet 7 1/2 inches, but Jack Lipman is coming fast, as his mark of 49.5, made last week, indicates. Stan Andersen, star tackle on the 1927 grid team, is an excellent prospect. Stan did 46:11.5-8 as a frosh. Ted Hucklebridge tossed the iron ball 48.4 before injuring his wrist early last season and is back in good shape. Dark horse

CHINA CONDITIONS OUTLINED FOR CLUB BY MISSION WORKER

ORANGE, Feb. 3.—A graphic survey of China over a period of the past 20 years was given at a meeting of the Orange Lions club yesterday noon by the Rev. Erhardt Riedel who has served in the mission field of Lutheran churches of that country for nearly a quarter of a century. Oscar Leichtfuss was program chairman and Ray Arguello presided and conducted the business meeting preceding the talk.

The missionary told of the unification of China and declared that for the first time in its history China is imbued with a patriotic spirit which extends to all provinces and to all classes of people.

Japan, he said, wants to dominate the Orient and wishes to gain the control of the Pacific. The past five years of rapid progress in China has had Japan worried, he said. China will fight the invasion of the country to a finish, the speaker stated.

Riedel said that he had lost touch with American issues in his long residence in China but that he was sympathetic toward the great need of medical aid for the wounded soldiers and warstricken population of China, He was toastmaster.

Refugees were pouring into Hankow by thousands when he left that city, said the speaker. The speaker pointed out the danger of both China and Japan becoming exhausted from the present conflict, and Russia's stepping into assume control.

The event took place in the Epworth hall and guests were seated at four long tables centered with gay bouquets of red geraniums and lighted with red tapers. A guest of honor was Clifford Fishback of Sacramento, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Fishback. Place cards were red hearts and the dessert course of red jello and whipped cream reflected the chosen color theme.

A program included piano selections by Clifford Fishback. The host committee was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Trafford Watson, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kuchel, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gulette, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cronley, Mr. and Mrs. William Dyer and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson.

Others present were the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur T. Hobson, Messrs. and Mesdames L. L. Williams, Bernard Nuffer, W. R. Aebelso, Vernon C. Slippe, Walter Adams, George Horton, Forest Talmadge, R. M. Buckles, Arthur E. Sipherd, Fred Osborne, Rex Parks, Wilbur Nave, R. C. Patton, Floyd Watson, Walter Brubaker, Ted Korse, Joseph Hancock, Kenneth Claypool, Harry Nuffer, G. W. ## LUNCHEON HELD BY CLUB GROUP

ORANGE, Feb. 3.—Members of the First Economics section of the Orange Woman's club held an interesting session Tuesday at the clubhouse, with Miss Emma Corson in charge of a patriotic program. Miss Harriet Corson read the Gettysburg address and told the story of its delivery by Abraham Lincoln and of the author's reactions after it was given. Mrs. Clara Whittemore presided.

A delectable luncheon was served and tables were decorated in yellow and orchid, calendula, jonquils and violets being combined in attractive arrangements. Hostesses were Mrs. L. W. Hemphill, Mrs. C. J. Hibben, Miss Corson and Mrs. Lillian Bishop. Guests included Mrs. Flora Boggs, of Long Beach, a houseguest of Mrs. Laura Bowen; Miss Nan Kyle and Miss Harriet Corson.

An Irish program will be presented at the March meeting and hostesses are to be Mrs. Alfred Higgins, Mrs. J. P. Birning, Mrs. Clara Whittemore and Mrs. Belle Condon. Roll call responses will be Irish jokes.

Members present were the hostesses and Mesdames Sherman Gillogly, J. F. Lewis, C. L. Benson, Rozalia Smith, Flora Smith, M. E. Livingston, Belle Condon, C. W. Coffey, Laura Bowen, Anna Slater, W. T. Syester, W. O. Higgins, Alfred Higgins, Claudia Boyer, N. J. Whitney, Clara Whittemore, A. R. Fernald, G. W. Wood, Alfred Leech and Frank Robinson.

FULLERTON — Preparatory to their Eastern conference clash with the San Bernardino Indians Saturday, Fullerton's Yellowjackets tangle with the barnstorming Phoenix Jaycees here tonight.

Coach Art Nunn is particularly interested in Monday night's meeting of junior college athletic directors who will decide whether the Southern California playoffs between the divisions will be continued.

Because of the situation existing in the Western division, the directors found it advisable to ban a title football match last fall. Several Western conference teams claimed the title while Santa Ana and San Bernardino tied for the Eastern division championship.

Jimmie Fidler in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 3 — Settin' Around (Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer): Few people seeing "Marie Antoinette," will realize to what a great extent the merit of the picture depends upon the amount of work done before actual production was ever started. I think that the secret of M-G-M's success with "super-colossals" lies in the thoroughness of the studio's research staff.

"Marie Antoinette" was first proposed as a Norma Shearer production four years ago—and the research crew has been working on it ever since. So has Norma Shearer, the most painstaking actress that ever lived. From five hundred different descriptions of the many historical personages involved were compiled. The physical and mental quirks of each role were noted. Every part has been cast accordingly. Every incident involved in the plot was checked and double-checked against historic fact. Studio research scouts made special trips to France to study the authentic costumes of the period and to locate wigmakers who could duplicate the court hairdress that was in vogue during Marie's hey-day.

Norma Shearer, after consulting dozens of authorities, decided that Stefanie Zweig's biography of Marie Antoinette was the most comprehensive. She has studied that book until she knows it by heart. Her characterization will not be conceived before the cameras. It has been building for four years.

Because of his theatrical mannerisms, Lionel Barrymore has been the butt of many a joke. But there is no man in all Hollywood for whom I have greater respect. He has suffered from chronic rheumatism for years—suffered agonies so great that a man with less courage would have given up the struggle and reconciled himself to a life of invalidism. He was suffering today when I saw him on the "Test Pilot" set—on crutches. Things were going wrong. One irritating delay after another had put everyone's nerves on edge. Characteristically it was Lionel who saved the day. Just when a major blow-up seemed imminent, he told a side-splitting joke. Everyone on the set roared and relaxed—everyone but Lionel. I caught a glimpse of his face as he turned away and saw him grit his teeth in pain.

Thanks to his role in "Test Pilot," Clark Gable is one up on the czars of M-G-M. About a year ago they discovered that he had been taking flying lessons and immediately "grounded" him, threatening to break his contract if he did not give up his pursuit of a pilot's license. But for this picture, he has had to go up every day for weeks. Naturally, an experienced pilot—the best to be had—was hired to fly the ship and the studio bosses had consoled themselves that their No. 1 star was safe with him. I wonder what they will say when they eventually learn that Clark has actually been handling the controls between take-offs and landings? He told me today, that he has earned credit for about fifteen hours of flying time since starting the picture.

The illusion on the "Marie Antoinette" set was so perfect that I was mentally living back in the eighteenth century when Director Van Dyke spoiled it all by bawling orders for the "Left Hand-back" to report to me instantaneously. "What under the sun . . ." I asked Norma Shearer. "Just Van Dyke efficiency," she laughed. "The first time he called 'Bill,' he was almost trampled to death in the rush. There are eleven Bills working on this set. After counting them, Van organized a football team and now addresses each one by position. Our assistant director calls himself 'Pigskin'—because everyone kicks him around!"

Outside the studio's test stage, a long line of proud screen names were waiting with their off-

HOSPITAL CASE LEFT TO COUNTY

Adjournment of yesterday's weekly session of the county grand jury, without hearing witnesses, corroborated unofficial reports at the courthouse that the grand jury is not investigating the recent fatal burning of a child in the county hospital.

Indications were that the grand jury, after having observers at the coroner's inquest, was content to leave the matter in the hands of the county authorities.

Whatever comment the grand jury may have to make evidently will be reserved for its regular report, expected soon.

Half-Day Session

The coroner's jury, hearing an account of the tragedy, fixed no criminal responsibility for the baby's death, but declared that certain equipment for applying inhalation treatment was out-of-date.

The grand jury restricted itself to a half-day session yesterday, adjourning at noon until next Wednesday. A short conference was held with County Welfare Director Jack W. Snow during the morning.

FEDERAL CAPTIVES ARE BOOKED HERE

Four federal prisoners, each charged with a different offense against the United States government, were booked last night and today at Orange county jail by government officers who brought them here from Los Angeles.

Frederick G. Anderson, 22, clerk, Guttenberg, N. J., convicted of violating the Dyer act by transporting a stolen car from one state to another, must serve one year here; Johan Loen, 38, Norwegian sailor who was arrested for entering the country in violation of immigration laws at San Pedro, must serve 90 days.

Earl Perkins, 33, laborer, Wichita, Kan., convicted of destroying government property, was sentenced to serve six months; Jack E. Midgett, 23, laborer, Little Rock, Ark., convicted of having counterfeit money in his possession, eight months.

Bible Class To Elect Officers

Members of Mrs. Iva Webber's Bible Class of the Richland Avenue Methodist Church, will elect new officers for the year when they meet Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Warner, 1516 Willets street.

A pot luck dinner, to be served at 6 p. m. will precede the business session and election of officers.

STRONG ATTACK PLANNED FOR FEB. 11 RALLY

Militantly attacking the problems confronting the party in the state, California Republicans will stage their "kick-off" session of the 1938 election year at the annual convention of the California Republican Assembly here next week-end, February 11, 12 and 13.

Leaders of the G.O.P. party from San Diego on the south to Eureka on the north are expected here for the annual meeting of the assembly, successor to the Republican club and today the most active Republican organization in California.

Officials Coming

Gov. Frank F. Merriam, Lt. Gov. George J. Hatfield, many other state officials and candidates already announced for state and national offices have signified their intention of attending the three-day meet at which policies of the Republican party for 1938 will be drafted in their temporary form.

Robert S. Barkell of Oakland is state president of the assembly and Donald G. Adams, vice-president, is the Riverside host to the convention. All sessions will be conducted in the Mission Inn.

Half-Day Session

On Friday, Feb. 11, the 1937-38 board of directors will conduct the final meeting of the year. This preliminary session will bring officers, directors and regional leaders here on Friday.

Register Saturday

Registration of delegates will get underway in earnest Saturday morning and the opening luncheon is scheduled for Saturday, May 26. C. Evans will extend Riverside's greeting. Lt. Gov. George Hatfield will address this meeting.

Sessions of the convention will get underway Saturday afternoon.

Memory of Abraham Lincoln, will be honored in a big banquet scheduled Saturday night with large Republican delegations from all counties of Southern California expected to attend in addition to the convention delegates. Arrangements are being made for a speaker of national importance for this event.

Entertainment Slated

The one social event of the convention will be staged following the banquet. There will be a floor show and dancing.

Sunday morning the annual Governor's Breakfast will be held, with Gov. Frank Merriam as special guest and speaker.

Convention sessions will be resumed Sunday morning and continue through the day. The new board of directors will meet Sunday afternoon to lay plans for a vigorous Republican campaign in California this year.

Dakotans Plan To Frolic Saturday

Judge Frank P. Allen, president of the North Dakotans today issued the "last call" for the rally all day Saturday in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles.

The program of music and addresses will follow the basket picnic dinner and will include musical entertainment by Alma Dube.

President Allen will open county headquarters and install officers. Hot coffee will be served and silk badges supplied. All North Dakotans are invited and a special call is made to tourists.

A pot luck dinner, to be served at 6 p. m. will precede the business session and election of officers.

Pick Leach As Head Of Peace Group

Detective Hunter Leach of the Santa Ana police department, was elected president of the Orange County Peace Officers' association last night when members of the organization held their annual election and barbecue at Tustin. Leach succeeds D. R. McMillan who headed the organization last year.

Other officers elected were: B. G. Wolfe, Orange, vice president; W. H. Heard, Santa Ana, secretary-treasurer and Charles Mitchell and Ives Brown, directors.

Benefit Barbecue

Chief of Police John Stanton of Tustin and Dan Adams of the California Highway Patrol, were in charge of the barbecue which was served in American Legion hall. Adams, however, could not attend the dinner as he had been ordered to highway patrol school.

During the business session tentative plans for the benefit Buffalo Barbecue to be sponsored at an early date by the association, Lee Mann was named publicity chairman for the affair.

Among guests of the organization who attended the dinner were: Judge L. Allen, J. B. Tucker, County Clerk B. J. Smith, Councilman Plummer Bruns, Santa Ana and others.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Sorority Rush Party Follows Circus Motif

Last night's rain was all that was needed to convince Sigma Tau Psis and their guests that it was a real circus night, with decorations for a gayly informal "big tent" party carried out cleverly in the home of Miss Jane Hill on Newport Road.

Miss Hill and Miss Genevieve Glover were co-hostesses at the affair, which came as the sorority's first rush party of 1938. Three of the guests, the Misses Jeannette Bodman, Betty Bradley and Winifred Brown won prizes in games. Other guests were Miss Ruth Watson and Miss Barbara Warne.

Avery Johnson added to the enjoyment of the occasion by screening a number of colored pictures which he had taken in Mexico City, New York City, Chicago and the Pacific Coast's own Catalina Island.

Weiners and buns and pink lemonade formed the refreshment course served buffet style in the dining room, where tiny ivory animals circled a circus tent glowing with lights. There were bowls of peanuts and jelly beans to further the motif.

Members present were the two hostesses and the Misses Fern Bernier, Genevieve Glover, Betty Marston, Eleanor Evans, Dorothy Skinner, Charlotte Barker, May Hibbert, Ruth Mary Reichstein and Mesdames Terry Stephenson and Mrs. Eugene Anderson and Max Wilson.

The next regular meeting will be held Wednesday evening in the home of Miss Dorothy Skinner, 308 Hickory street.

New Member Welcomed By Mayflower Club

Mrs. Edgar Higday was received as a new member of Mayflower club Tuesday afternoon at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Edward Cochems, 323 East Chestnut street, where Mrs. J. W. Parkinson was co-hostess.

Others present were Mesdames W. G. Pagenkopp, C. D. Copeland, A. C. Wiebe, J. D. Sanborn, William Marymee, Fannie Cunningham, V. C. Shidler, E. E. Frisby, A. T. Perkins, Mrs. J. H. Hulsey was voted in as a new member of the club.

Mrs. Marymee won a prize in bridge games of the afternoon. Refreshments were served by the two hostesses.

Mrs. A. C. Wiebe's home on East Fifth street will be scene of the next meeting, Tuesday, March 1.

FOR CONTRACT PLAY

Scarlet berries of massed coton-aster sprays lent a vivid valentine touch to the table where Miss Lucy Holmes and Mrs. Roy Grislet yesterday grouped members of their bridge club for an enjoyable luncheon as introduction to an afternoon of contract.

The party found setting in the Holmes home, 1408 North Main street, where small tables for bridge play were sought in the living room at the conclusion of the luncheon hour. In the afternoon's contest, high scores were made by Mrs. Enrys White Jr. and Mrs. George Preble.

Miss Holmes and Mrs. Grislet entertained Mrs. White and Mrs. Fayette Birkner of Anaheim, with Mesdames Paul Hales, Woodrow Barnett, Edward Sudgen, Thomas Jentes, Terry Stephenson Jr. and George Preble of this city.

Auxiliary is Organized To County Dental Association

Formation of a women's auxiliary to the Orange county branch of American Dental association was duly effected last night when wives of Orange county dentists were entertained in the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Lucien Wehrly, 2411 North Park boulevard.

Mrs. Wehrly as president presented her committee, Mesdames H. G. Howe, C. P. Tompkins, D. Hough and A. H. Tyrell, had constitution and by-laws ready for adoption by the group, after an enlightening round table discussion of purpose, activities and benefits of such an organization. Mrs. Russell V. Lichtenwarter of Long Beach, an active worker in the national auxiliary, led this round table. Contributing greatly to its interest, was the talk by Dr. Fred B. Olds of Los Angeles, American Dental association chairman for furthering auxiliary formations.

Election of officers was of importance and resulted in the choice of Mrs. Charles Schulz (Anaheim), president; Mrs. H. G. Howe (Fullerton), vice president; Mrs. Harvey Spears (Santa Ana), secretary and Mrs. D. H. Hough (Huntington Beach), treasurer. Mrs. Wehrly asked Mrs. Cassius Paul and Mrs. George Lippincott.

During an interval of chat between supper and bridge, the guests took Mr. Turner definitely by surprise when they produced gift packages in wide variety. In contract play which followed this unexpected interlude, combined scores of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armin were high and merited the attractive gift offered by the hosts. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Pearson were second high in rating and received an equally pretty prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner's guests included with the Armins and the Pearsons, the J. F. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. George Lippincott.

Mexican Theme Applied To Party Honoring Sorority Group

Inviting the general membership of Sigma Beta Chi sorority to a party, a quintet of newly initiated members veiled all their plans in mystery so that every detail came as a pleasant surprise to the complimented guests, received in the home of Miss Hazel Forrester, 824 East First street.

Snapping dragons were used in decorating for the noon-day event, at which Mrs. Lillian Dawson and Mrs. Effie Neuschwanger were hostesses.

Announcement was made that the party February 15 will take the place of the club's regular meeting, which would fall on that date. The public is invited to attend the event. Prizes will be awarded winners in card play and there will be special features to add to the entertainment of the amusing game of La Cucuracha. It appeared again in prizes, for which Mrs. Noble Reneker, with high score, was presented a pair of quaint candle holders in Mexican design, while a colorful plaque went to Mrs. Kimball Pratt with second high score.

Winners in Tuesday afternoon's card play were Mrs. Winnie Dean and Mrs. Lillian Dawson, contract; Mrs. Rose Chast and Mrs. Pearl Lycan, auction. Twenty members were present.

Hostesses for a meeting Tuesday, March 1 at 12:30 p.m. at the Rossmore will be Mesdames Nellie Young and Laure Kesserman.

Selection of New Name Is Made by Group

Selecting "Comweil" as the name of their club, members of a group formed within the ranks of young women of First Presbyterian church met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Harvey Bear, 1237 South Parton street. Mrs. Ralph Dozier was co-hostess.

In the group with the hostesses were Mesdames Don Davis, Neil Adams, Forbes Freeman, Kimball Pratt, Lee Hamilton, Noble Reeker, Bruce Harrelson, Bob Stumm, Nelson Rogers, Howard Gould, Roy Lighthall, and Miss Kristine Nielsen.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kuhl, Mr. and Mrs. Olson and daughter, Lavern; Mr. and Mrs. Chetwood, visitors from Minnesota; Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of South Dakota, Mrs. Greeve and son of Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Rhinman, and daughter of Tacoma, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. A. Gunderson, Mr. and Mrs. Elmendorf, Bogart, Miss Pearl Alder, Mrs. Alice Garlick, Mrs. Nelle Reeves, Mr. Swanson, Bob Bogart; with Miss Hansen and Peter Hansen.

MRS. BOWER'S CLUB

Mrs. John Bower was hostess to members of her card club Tuesday afternoon in her home, 1324 Bush street, where tables centered with sweet peas and other flowers formed a background for an enjoyable refreshment interval.

Bridge was played following the serving of dessert. Scoring first and second high were Mrs. C. F. Skirvin and Mrs. Alex Brownridge. Others present were George Munro, J. E. Sexton, Fleetwood Bell, Hazel Turner, A. J. Lasby, F. E. Earel, W. B. Martin, C. E. Downie.

You and Your Friends

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Frisby and Son Eugene, 1012 Kulsion Drive and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pagenkopp and Son Weston, 505 East Bishop street made a recent trip to Forest Home.

Miss Jessie Leach of Chicago left last night for her home after a two weeks' visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Waldron, 2144 Greenleaf street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith, 831 South Flower street, have as a houseguest, Mrs. Smith's father, D. W. Miller of Diamondville, Wyo., who arrived during the holidays to spend the winter in the Southland.

Supper Guests Surprise Host With Presents

Sunday night supper planned by Mr. and Mrs. Olin Turner of 1523 West Ninth street, for entertainment of a little group of congenial friends, offered a complete surprise to the host when his guests showed an unexpected familiarity with the fact that the day was his birthday anniversary.

Little Miss Corinne Turner received her parents' guests as they arrived for an early evening supper hour. Mrs. Turner had chosen a yellow and white motif accepted by the more vivid hues of the flowers placed about her home. But the dining table from which the tempting Italian supper was served, had slim yellow tapers and clusters of buttercups blending beautifully with the ivory pottery candlesticks and bowls. The effect was repeated in miniature on each of the small tables in the living room where foursome groups were formed for enjoyment of the menu. Mrs. Francis Jacoby aided the hostess in serving.

Election of officers was of importance and resulted in the choice of Mrs. Charles Schulz (Anaheim), president; Mrs. H. G. Howe (Fullerton), vice president; Mrs. Harvey Spears (Santa Ana), secretary and Mrs. D. H. Hough (Huntington Beach), treasurer.

During an interval of chat between supper and bridge, the guests took Mr. Turner definitely by surprise when they produced gift packages in wide variety.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner's guests included with the Armins and the Pearsons, the J. F. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. George Lippincott.

DREDGING OPERATIONS TO BEGIN MONDAY

HONER PICKED BY BUILDERS TO ATTEND PARLEY

Allison C. Honer, Santa Ana contractor, will leave tomorrow for Washington, D. C., to attend a 10-day convention of the National Association of Builders Exchanges, as the representative of the Orange County Builders Exchange.

Discussion of a national program for building and construction industry under the Federal Housing Administration bill recently passed in Congress will be the highlight of the meeting.

Registrar Named

Allison's appointment as delegate was made at a meeting of the board of directors of the local Exchange.

It was announced at the meeting that Arthur Alber, of Hollywood, has been appointed state registrar of contractors by Gov. Frank Merriam, to fill the absence left by Earl S. Anderson, of Los Angeles.

Four new members were voted into membership of the local exchange at the directors meeting. They were: Nylin P. Hurd, contractor, the Furniture Supply company; Ted Blanding, landscape architect, and W. L. Sibley, contractor.

PICKERING FILES FORECLOSURE SUIT

George C. Pickering, Fullerton contractor, today filed suit in superior court against the LaVida Products Company, Mayor and Mrs. L. A. Hogue of Brea; the Oilfields National Bank of Brea, and a Santa Ana title company, to foreclose a mechanic's lien of $5868.18 against a building remodeled for the LaVida Products Company on property of the Hogues last August.

The building was remodeled for bottling plant, the complaint stated. Pickering was paid $1000 and the balance stated remains due, he alleges.

WOMEN ARE INVITED

The second of a series of lectures on "Health Problems of the Dangerous Age" at the Y.M.C.A. tonight at 7:30 p.m., will be open to women of the community as well as men, it is announced by Ralph Smedley, Y. M. C. A. secretary. The lecture next week on "Cancer" also will be open to women. The first of the series given last week was for men as will be the rest of the series. Tonight the topic will be "Diet and Digestive Disturbances."

Postmasters Plan Dinner Meeting

Postmaster Carl Romer, of San Juan Capistrano, will be host tonight at a dinner meeting of the Orange County Postmasters' Association. The dinner will be given at Aquarium cafe in San Clemente.

Claire Head, Garden Grove, president of the association, will preside at the business meeting which will be devoted to round-table discussion of postal laws and regulations and problems of office administration.

RECIPROCITY DAY PROGRAM IS ENJOYED BY PLACENTIA GROUP

PLACENTIA, Feb. 3.—A musical recital, by Ethelynde Smith of Portland, Maine, soprano, was the feature of the Placentia Round Table club's reciprocity day program Wednesday at the clubhouse. Mrs. Halsey I. Spence introduced the soprano. Miss Lois Mills was accompanist.

The nominating committee was elected as follows: Mrs. L. T. Gilligan and Mrs. V. L. Adams, from the board of directors; Mrs. George Little and Mrs. Robert Seamans from the executive board; Mrs. William Bates, Mrs. Lloyd Pendleton and Mrs. T. L. McFadden from the club at large.

Mrs. S. S. Twombly will entertain the booklovers' section Monday at her home in Fullerton. The garden section will meet February 28 and will visit gardens at Arcadia, with Mrs. W. W. Blackmer, Mrs. Mary Sunwalt and Mrs. J. W. Cohoe as hostesses.

Mrs. Raymond Thompson, county chairman of motion pictures, and Dr. Mary George of San Diego, state chairman of motion pictures, talked briefly, Mrs. Bert Shaw introduced Dr. George.

Mrs. Taibot Bielefeldt, in charge of promotion for the play, "The Torchbearers," the play members are sponsoring for a general federation fund, told of her plans and announced the date of the play will be named later.

ACCIDENT FATAL TO A. L. NELSON

Struck by a street car in Los Angeles, A. D. Nelson of Los Angeles, 71, father of Mrs. Carl M. Stein of 2123 Greenleaf, Santa Ana, died yesterday as a result of the accident.

The accident occurred Monday evening, when Mr. Nelson, who was walking across the street, was struck by a street car operated by George Houts.

Beside Mrs. Stein, the only other survivor in the immediate family is the widow, Mrs. Hannah Nelson.

Coroner's inquest has been set for tomorrow.

GOVERNOR APPOINTS MEDICAL EXAMINERS

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Three reappointments and one new appointment to the state board of medical examiners were announced today by the governor's office.

Named to succeed themselves for terms ending Jan. 15, 1942, are Dr. Percival Dolman, San Francisco; Dr. George Thomason, Los Angeles, and Dr. C. L. Abbott, Oakland.

Dr. John McLean, Los Angeles, replaces the late Dr. Harry V. Brown, Glendale. McLean's term expires Jan. 15, 1939.

The governor also appointed the following new directors to the 48th district agricultural association:

Dan Lillywhite, Los Angeles, succeeding E. D. Bigler, Walnut Park, resigned; Louis H. Hamilton, Walnut Park, replacing G. W. Henderson, Huntington Park, term expired; Max R. Wallace, Huntington Park, succeeding F. L. Kingsbury, Maywood, term expired. Lillywhite's term expires in 1941; those of Hamilton and Wallace in 1942.

BOY WINS ARGUMENT

DETROIT, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Clifford Bailey, 5, was the victor today in a four-day hunger strike which he staged at the hospital when doctors refused his demand to be home with his mother. He took his medicine and ate heartily today—at home—and physicians said he soon would recover from a scarlet fever attack.

SWEET REVENGE

DETROIT, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Armen W. Kirchoff, 44, flooded the bull pen at police headquarters by turning on both faucets in a wash basin and jerking a water pipe from the wall. He explained in traffic court that he was taking revenge because police refused to let him use a telephone when he was arrested on a drunk driving charge.

HE MAY REPENT

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 3.—(UP)—If the thief who broke into the automobile of the Rev. J. C. Cottrell of Newcomertown, O., can read, he may repent. His loot included seven books on religious subjects.

PETITION FILED

Mrs. Florence Humphries today petitioned superior court to terminate the joint tenancy interest of her husband, the late Howard W. Humphries, in property at Orange Park Acres, near El Modena. Humphries died June 10, 1934.

MRS. PETERS HONORED

WINTERSBURG, Feb. 3.—A group of friends of Mrs. L. Peters surprised her this week with a pre-nuptial shower at which many lovely gifts were presented. Refreshments of cake, sandwiches and coffee were served.

The date of the marriage of Mrs. Peters to Robert Benson, who is an army man, located at Fort McArthur, San Pedro, has not been announced by Mrs. Peters. It is understood that the couple plan on making their future home at San Pedro.

CITY TO USE NEW MACHINE

NEWPORT BEACH, Feb. 3.—Work of dredging the Grand Canal will start next Monday, with the city's dredging equipment being used, it was announced today. It is estimated that the Balboa Island project will require two weeks. Approximately 4000 yards of material will be removed.

The dredging material will be used to build up the strand around the island. Other dredging operations are planned when this work is completed.

The new city dredge was constructed at a cost of $10,000. It is on a 20 by 30 foot barge and is powered with a 120-horsepower Hercules Diesel engine.

JAPAN ALARMED AT NAVY PLANS

TOKYO, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Rear Admiral Kiyoshi Noda, chief of the navy information bureau, said today that Japan must "seriously consider" whether the American navy building program is a menace to Japan.

Admiral Noda was discussing statements of Admiral William D. Leahy, chief of operations of the U. S. Navy, before the house naval affairs committee. He was asked whether the American program menaced Japan.

We must seriously consider that situation," he replied.

In parliament, Gen. Sugiyama, war minister, urged immediate enactment of a general mobilization

Prince Fumimaro Konoye said that mobilization bill was being drafted. This bill was expected to intensify central control of all activities on a war basis.

Admiral Noda said that he saw no reason why such a responsible official should have made such statements as those with which Leahy was credited. He referred particularly to the linking by Admiral Leahy of the Japanese, German and Italian navies as being stronger, combined, than the United States fleet.

Cause Arms Race

Great Britain and America, Admiral Noda said, might possibly be contemplating a police force with which to preserve world peace.

"But their building program would be an incentive to an arms race instead of a promotion of peace," he commented.

Admiral Yonai denied that Japan exchanged building plans with

UMBRELLA WIELDER DRAWS JAIL TERM

Charles M. Brixey, Santa Ana, who used the end of a beach umbrella, according to testimony before Justice Kenneth Morrison today, to strike Jesus Barba, tenant at the same house, recently, was sent to county jail for a six-months' term today.

Brixey assertedly returned to the house after drinking some liquor and sought to take a hot bath. Finding the water cold, he tried to light the heater and made so much noise, he awakened all of the tenants, officials reported. Appearing on the scene, Brixey became engaged in an argument with Barba, then struck him several times, testimony showed. He was charged with committing simple assault.

A three act drama, "Reminiscences," was presented by a cast including Mesdames Marie Ward, J. N. Scott, James Zoeter, William Bowers, James Prentiss, Haskell Jones, Morgan Christian, Velma Witten, Elizabeth Johnson, James G. Snell and assisted by Beverly Zaeter and Billy Powers.

Announcement was made of a benefit card party to be staged in Civic auditorium the evening of February 8.

INSULT—INJURY

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., Feb. 3.—(UP)—J. W. Blackbain stormed into police headquarters.

"Someone stole my fine gun out of my automobile," he said.

Police went with Blackbain to investigate the loss. His automobile had been stolen while he was gone.

HE MAY REPENT

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 3.—(UP)—If the thief who broke into the automobile of the Rev. J. C. Cottrell of Newcomertown, O., can read, he may repent. His loot included seven books on religious subjects.

PETITION FILED

Mrs. Florence Humphries today petitioned superior court to terminate the joint tenancy interest of her husband, the late Howard W. Humphries, in property at Orange Park Acres, near El Modena. Humphries died June 10, 1934.

MRS. PETERS HONORED

WINTERSBURG, Feb. 3.—A group of friends of Mrs. L. Peters surprised her this week with a pre-nuptial shower at which many lovely gifts were presented. Refreshments of cake, sandwiches and coffee were served.

The date of the marriage of Mrs. Peters to Robert Benson, who is an army man, located at Fort McArthur, San Pedro, has not been announced by Mrs. Peters. It is understood that the couple plan on making their future home at San Pedro.

Our Children

By ANGELO PATRI

FRIGHTENED PARENTS

"My child told me a lie today. A deliberate lie. What is to be done with him? Should I send him to confess it to the clergyman? Should I tell his father? Would a visit to the jail do any good? Should I have whipped him? I am so upset that I am not sure of myself and must have help."

"He asked me for five cents to get a notebook, and I gave it to him. When I asked him if he got the book he said, 'Yes.' I thought no more about it until a couple of days later when he asked for a writing pad that was on the desk. I asked him for his notebook and he said he had lost it. I got the truth out of him by questioning him. He spent the five cents for candy and got no book. I'm heartbroken."

Don't be heart-broken, don't be frightened. This lie is not the first one that has shadowed this earth, nor will it be the last. Since the beginning of time men have used a lie as a door to escape. Why should we be so frightened when a child follows the race-old pattern? All children lie sometimes, but only the abnormal child continues the practice. This mistake can be trained out just as other mistakes are trained out of a child's behavior. Take heart and face the situation. It is going to be overcome.

First—and this is highly important to success—build up the health of the child. Courage is born of health, physical and mental. Lies are born of fear, and fear is unhealthy, the sign of illness. The lie itself is not so important as the cause of the lie. What made the child want candy so badly? Why was he afraid to ask for candy directly? Why was he afraid to tell his wants and his feelings to his mother? In the correct answers to these questions lies the solution of this problem.

When a child tells a lie, or is discovered piffing, try not to be frightened yourself, and try not to frighten the child. Fear will confuse you and allow you to do things that you would never do if your mind was clear and your reason uppermost. Don't strike the child. Don't scare him with hell fire. Do not put hot pepper on his tongue. It's not inflict pain of this sort upon him, for it will increase his fear; increase his tendency to defend himself with a lie; increase his helplessness.

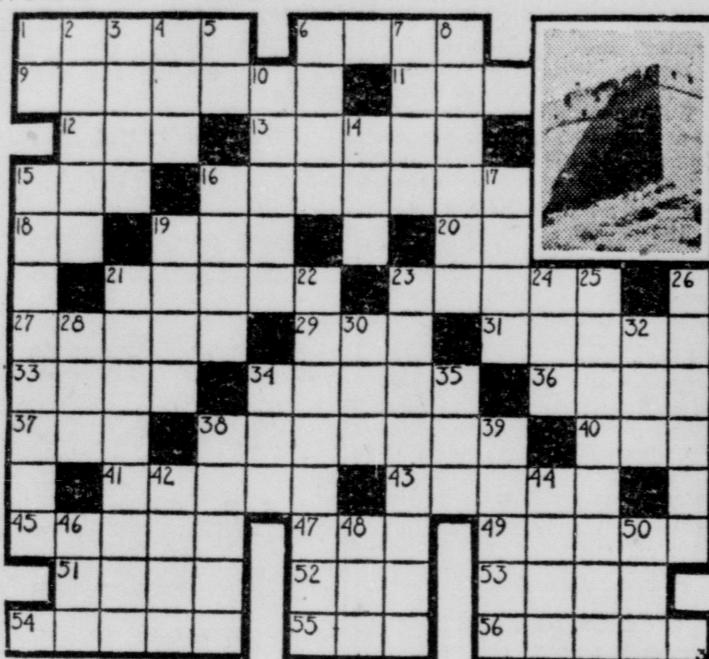

Listen to his story. Question him carefully. Try to find the truth of his actions. Think it over. Try, if possible, to see why he did this thing. Then talk to him. Tell him, if he is a little chap about five or so, a good fable that sets out your meaning. If he is older tell him that a lie is a foolish gesture that deceives nobody, but injures the liar seriously in his reputation and in his own soul. Give him a good example, a pattern to go by. There are heroes of truth that boys delight to honor. Tie one to the erring lad. Keep searching for the root of the trouble and build to strengthen the child against it. But don't be afraid.

Mr. Patri has prepared a special booklet (No. 301) entitled, "Obedience," in which he tells parents how to cope with the difficult problems of disobedience. Send for it, it only by adding an "I."

GARDEN AND HOME

LIST ANNUAL FLOWERS AND THEIR USES

Many Vegetables In Planned Garden

Beauty and Utility Are Combined Well in This Small Vegetable Garden

Garden planning is best done in the winter when the gardener has most time for it. Here is a list of flowers, classified according to type, color and habits, which may be a valuable aid in planning a garden on paper.

For edges and borders—Sweet alyssum, dwarf nasturtiums, lobelia, dwarf marigold (Tagetes pumila), ageratum, Virginia stocks and forget-me-nots.

Long stems for cutting—Asters, calliopsis, mums, larkspur, stocks and cosmos.

Short stems for cutting—Marigolds, snapdragons, calendulas, sweet peas, annual chrysanthemums, bachelor buttons, sweet sultans, ten weeks' stocks and gypsophila.

For edges and borders—Sweet alyssum, dwarf nasturtiums, lobelia, dwarf marigold (Tagetes pumila), ageratum, Virginia stocks and forget-me-nots.

Long stems for cutting—Asters, calliopsis, mums, larkspur, stocks and cosmos.

Short stems for cutting—Marigolds, snapdragons, calendulas, sweet peas, annual chrysanthemums, bachelor buttons, sweet sultans, ten weeks' stocks and gypsophila.

This little garden was simply laid out, as the plan shows. The soil was poor, but it was enriched with 50 pounds of commercial plant food, raked into the surface after the soil was spaded. Rows were laid out 18 inches apart, with a 3 foot grass path in the center, as the plan shows. A decorative fence surrounding it supported pole beans and tomatoes.

Here is the way it was planted, the numbers referring to the locations indicated on the plan:

1. Green bush-beans, 2. wavy bush-beans, 3. dwarf lima beans, 4. beets, 5. dwarf peas, 6. parsnips, 7. leaf lettuce, 8. carrots, 9. broccoli, 10. egg-plant, 11. peppers 12. Swiss chard, 13. parsley, 14. cos lettuce, 15. herbs, 16. Kentucky Wonder beans, 18. tomatoes (on fence), 19. Italian marrows, 20. bush pumpkin.

Water was available to this garden during dry spells. The work required to keep it was about an hour a day.

The space was so small it was never a burden, and nothing had to be neglected; which greatly increased the pleasure of the gardener. Garden disappointments are often due to attempting too much, which prevents proper care and feeding of the plant.

The crops grew abundantly, thanks to care; and the yield was as great as from a much larger area, not so well looked after.

For pleasurable recreation, vegetable gardening is in no way inferior to flower growing. In beauty, it may easily compete. There is as great a thrill for the grower of a ripe tomato, as a fine flower. And the contribution which fresh vegetables make to the health of a growing family would be difficult to excel.

For California planting dates for a similar garden, readers are referred to the planting calendar for February which appears on this page.

The life plant grew and spread and won the hearts of all who lived in the coral houses. Perhaps, though all Bermudians naturally speak of it as the "Ilopner," occasionally you may be told that the most appropriate name is the Bermuda fuchsia.

The life plant really is not at all like teh fuchsia, except in the way it is clothed; its leaves and branches grow in the manner of fuchsia leaves and brances, and its drooping blossoms are carried in the way of fuchsia blooms.

Meredith Willson lends an educated baton to the No. 1 composition in his list of the "Ten World Favorites." Bob Taylor continues as emcee. (KFI, 6)

Floppers is the children's name for the joyful weed; and since the multitude of blossoms certainly do flop in every breeze from the surrounding sea, it is easy to understand why flopper is a gay and appropriate name.

But life plant fits the thrifty weed likewise. For one thing, gardeners will tell you that it is almost impossible to get rid of the plant. It flourishes in and on top of every old stone wall from end to end of the islands, and is tucked in just anywhere, and everywhere that Mother Nature requires an extra bit of artistic decoration. The weed earned that name long ago when it was discovered that a leaf of it, pinned to the wall, actually would grow another leaf, and sometimes even shoots were forthcoming. Visitors in Bermuda often send leaves of the life plant in letters to friends overseas, with instructions to pin them on the wall, or attach them to curtains, and then watch the doings of the ambitious leaves.

The Queen Of Flowers (Continued from Last Week)

By Mrs. H. Cardoza Sloan, Corona Del Mar

Being sound advice and interesting comment on what to plant and how to care for Orange county gardens.

The Tea Roses. When the struggle between England and France was stirring up the difficulties on the high seas which brought about the war of 1812, that is to say, about the year 1810, an Englishman whose thoughts dwelt on beauty rather than war brought from China to England a little bluish-pink rose with a delicate tea scent. It was a frail plant, and it shivered un-happily in the fogs of Britain. But it lived. And some 10 years later, from China came another little rose, also with the delicate tea scent, but yellow in color. Happily for these little roses, a visiting Frenchman was attracted by them, took them home to France, and in that sunnier land they became the parents of the "tea-scented," or "tea" rose. They became tremendously popular and were sold by the hundreds as pot plants.

Delicate Rose

The tea rose is a rather delicate rose. It is at its best in France, whence most of the fine varieties have come. In the warmer parts of our own country it grows well. Maman Cochet, an old favorite in California, is a tea rose.

Harry Kirke is one of the few tea roses offered here. It has gracefully formed buds, deep sulphur yellow, and is delightfully fragrant. The color is inclined to fade if cut in the bud. Lady Hillingdon is another yellow tea rose grown here, both in the bush and as a climber. It also has long, graceful buds, ornamented by lace petals which give this rose an exceptional daintiness.

One of the first roses I knew in California was a tea rose. A fair-sized bush, with pretty light pink flowers, cupped in form, rather small and a little frail as to substance, but utterly charming. "La Duchess" was all the name it had for its possessor, but I now know

DID YOU KNOW THAT?

The chaps is pronounced chay-yo-tay, and is a one-seeded member of the squash family, with the special virtue of holding its shape after cooking. It may be fried, mashed, stuffed, baked, or made into delicious pickle.

Grandules are a kind of chick pea, and savory things done to them with bacon and tomatoes make them something to murmur about.

Yautia is a root vegetable.

Breadfruit comes from a tree but tastes about like white potatoes when cooked.

Papaya is the "melon pawpaw" with orange meat and black seeds; it's served cold, and eaten from the rind, like muskmelon.

All of them have that certain flavor which visitors to Puerto Rico have admired, enjoyed, and can now duplicate in many markets in the larger cities of the United States.—Christian Science Monitor.

Spray Peaches Right Now

If you expect to prevent "Curly Leaf"—before the buds form or break. Also spray blackberries for "Red Spot." Use lime sulphur for both. Don't wait, or it will be too late. We carry the lime sulphur in quarts, gallons, and fives. If you're puzzled over your spray problems—maybe we can help you.

BERMUDA WILD FLOWERS ONCE CULTIVATED

It is safe to say that the flower population of all the islands in the world has changed since man began to sail the seas. In Bermuda, flowers from the tropic and old favorites of Europe not only bloom in the bright gardens but many, including the four-o'clocks from Peru and their nasturtium neighbors, have run away and gone wild. The riot of blossoming flowers everywhere in this tiny group of islands in the great Atlantic has made it a land of enchantment.

Once Bermuda was known as the "Land of the Oleander and the Rose," but the ancestor of every oleander and every rose, and of nearly every garden flower there, was an exotic brought by sea captains and others from beyond the blue horizon.

You may perhaps have heard that the very weeds of Bermuda are beautiful, and this is the truth. Most beautiful of all the weeds in the wide world perhaps, is the commonest plant of Bermuda, known as the life plant.

In 1813 someone took the life plant from the Old World tropical regions to Bermuda. Whether he was a sea captain or a flower-loving passenger we have no way of learning.

Several years earlier a Polish gardener who lived on the Island of Johanna sent a gift plant to Sir Joseph Banks, who was charmed by its beauty. Now it grows in the West Indies and Florida.

In Bermuda the life plant grew and spread and won the hearts of all who lived in the coral houses. Perhaps, though all Bermudians naturally speak of it as the "Ilopner," occasionally you may be told that the most appropriate name is the Bermuda fuchsia.

The life plant really is not at all like teh fuchsia, except in the way it is clothed; its leaves and branches grow in the manner of fuchsia leaves and brances, and its drooping blossoms are carried in the way of fuchsia blooms.

Meredith Willson lends an educated baton to the No. 1 composition in his list of the "Ten World Favorites." Bob Taylor continues as emcee. (KFI, 6)

ESSENTIALS OF U. S. DEMOCRACY

A short time ago, a number of U. S. senators, principally members of the majority party, conferred with a view to creating a definite program for promoting recovery. Their conclusions, embraced in 10 proposals, were presented to the senate by Joseph Bailey of North Carolina. A digest of these 10 vital important points follows:

1. The capital gains tax and the undistributed profits tax should be thoroughly revised at once, so as to encourage the normal flow of savings into productive enterprise.

2. A start should be made toward balancing the federal budget, in order that public credit may be preserved and fears which deter investment ended.

3. The constitutional guarantees of the right of the worker to work, and the owner of property to its possession, must be preserved and enforced.

4. Government should stay out of fields which belong to the realm of private industry, and if the government does propose to compete in any field, due notice should be given so that private investment may avoid it.

5. The competitive system must be maintained as against either private or government monopoly, and business' right to a reasonable profit must be guaranteed.

6. Private credit must be preserved, and that means that the nation's collateral on which all credit depends, must be preserved.

7. There must be an assurance that taxes will not be further increased, and that they will be reduced at the earliest possible time.

8. States' rights, home rule and local self-government must be vigorously maintained, unless proved definitely inadequate.

9. The needy must be aided under a system which is non-political and non-partisan.

10. Lastly, the nation should rely, in the future, as in the past, upon the American system of private initiative and enterprise.

This program needs no comment. It is a real prosperity program. It is based upon the principles that have made America great. If congress will adopt it, it will make a magnificent contribution not only to recovery, but to the maintenance of U. S. democracy.

CHEAPER CASUALTY INSURANCE

On January 17, a substantial reduction in bank robbery insurance rates went into effect, according to an announcement by the Casualty and Surety Underwriters. The reduction, which averages more than 10 per cent, applies to all states except New York which continues to have the lowest rates in the country.

This reduction follows one made in June, 1936, and is based on a continued lessening of bank robbery losses. The effectiveness of the activities of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, plus the use of time-lock safe with the counter-sash limitation plan, are given much of the credit for the drop in losses.

From the standpoint of the general public, their reduction is a concrete example of the fact that it lies within the people's power to cut the costs of all types of casualty insurance, by lessening losses. Automobile liability and property damage provide a case in point. The cost of this type of insurance has tended to rise steadily in recent years. However, with the automobile accident record soaring, the casualty companies have had no choice in the matter. But when their claim payments are mounting by leaps and bounds, policy premiums must rise. Reduce the automobile's toll of life and property, and automobile insurance rates will go down.

The elimination of accident claim frauds, ambulance chasing and similar criminal activities likewise have a salutary effect on the casualty insurance rate structure. We will get cheaper insurance protection when operating experience makes it possible.

FIRE TRAP SCHOOLS

Again the North American continent has been the scene of a ghastly school fire—a small college in Montreal, in which the death list was more than a score. The hundred-dollars pupils and students who were saved owe their lives to miraculously good fortune.

As many authorities have pointed out, the condition in thousands of American schools presents a constant hazard to their occupants. And this is true not only of old wooden buildings which were erected before much was known of fire-resistant construction. Many a relatively new school, though handsome and massive in appearance, is honeycombed with unnecessary hazards. Inadequate stairways, doors that open inward, poorly situated fire-escapes—these are but a few of the dangers that can be found in schools built at great cost in recent years as well as the ramshackle buildings of yesterday.

We don't think this applies to the majority of schools in Santa Ana, or Orange county for that matter.

The school boards which have jurisdiction over dangerous buildings didn't conscientiously approve hazardous design and construction. They simply didn't know any better. But here is a case where ignorance is no excuse—where, indeed, it is in the nature of a crime. No schools should be built until qualified experts have examined and approved the blueprints. And every existing school—no matter how safe it may seem to the layman—should be inspected by experts in order to unearth and correct possible dangers.

ANSWERING JAY FRANKLIN'S QUESTION

Jay Franklin asks the question, "Tell me why the men who created the crash in 1929 have remained in control of industry after they were discredited by their own failures."

Mr. Franklin has assumed that men in control of industry were responsible for the crash of 1929. He has given no proof of this assumption. The men in control of industry did not write the laws which brought on the crash of 1929. They did not have sufficient votes to enact laws. The laws that brought on the crash in 1929 were made by legislators elected by the people and these legislators were men who promised to bring about a condition by law and the people believed these men.

The crash was due to uneconomic laws passed, as we have repeatedly said, in 1913 and 1914. These laws led the people to believe that the government could be extravagant and take the taxes from the rich and not lower the standard of living.

The laws which led the people to believe these things were the graduated income tax and inheritance tax law; the federal reserve act which allowed banks to pyramid long time credit used as money and thus raise the prices of things many times higher than they would have been had they not been permitted to manufacture long-time credit; the Clayton amendment to the Sherman anti-trust law which allowed labor unions and farmers to combine for restraint of trade and, thus, eliminate the competitive system that would constantly adjust inequalities of wages and prevent a piling up of needed adjustments. These inequalities in compensation became so serious that when they could not longer continue caused the crash.

So Mr. Franklin, when you contend that industrial leaders in control created the crash of 1929, you are assuming something that is not based on facts.

The industrial leaders were obliged to use the money system established by the government and to permit wage levels that were discriminatory to the farmers to come into effect. They were not responsible for the drying up of the real wealth of the world due to the extravagance of the government as a result of the belief that the government could be extravagant and not deplete the capital of the country that furnished employment.

For this reason, those who were the most efficient in industry and did not lose all their equities, were permitted to still continue to manage that part of industry the politicians have not abrogated to themselves.

Since the former depression, the politicians have further curtailed the right of private management to manage industry by the Undistributed Profits Tax, which makes it possible for the politicians to take any fraction of the profits of the individual they may see fit.

And they have further abrogated the rights of private management, by the Wagner National Labor Relations Act, which gives the politicians the final authority to determine whether or not an employee may be discharged, if employed by a business engaged in interstate commerce.

This leaves mighty little, Mr. Franklin, of management for private business. The hiring of help is the most important part of any business and now since this is in reality being taken over by the politicians, and the politicians have a right to determine what part of the profits, if any, be left to management, how can business be held responsible for the present crash?

If your assumption were true, Mr. Franklin, that industry created the crash in 1929, they certainly should not be left in control of industry; but they did not create the crash. Uneconomic laws and public opinion created the crash.

NOT BRAIN SWEAT

Senator George W. Rochester tells the Santa Ana Home Owned Business association that machines have wiped out employment; that the sweat of the brow is no longer a source of wealth.

Senator Rochester does not understand that the sweat of the brow means the sweat of the brain—the use of the mind.

If it were not for machines, this whole territory would be a desert and there would not be one person in Orange county where there is now 100. It makes possible production that supplies life. If it were not for machines, we would not be taking oil out of California from two miles depth. We would not be pumping water and raising oranges.

To have a legislator who has no more discrimination than to make a statement of this kind is certainly evident that pure democracy cannot support a high standard of living. We certainly need education, instead of miseducation!

We would ask the senator whether we do not buy goods with goods, is not business just an exchange of services; is it not true that the more goods that are produced, the most purchasing power there is in the country? Big production does not reduce purchasing power, it increases purchasing power. It is the only thing that does produce purchasing power.

The columns are open, Mr. Senator, to explain how we could support the population without machines and to explain how there can be lack of work, as long as there are human wants.

PEOPLE ARE SHACKLED

On January 3, 1938, the President said in his message to Congress: "They realize that in 34 months we have built up new instruments of public power. In the hands of a people's government this power is wholesome and proper. But in the hands of political puppets of an economic autocracy such power would provide shackles for the liberties of the people."

This statement is certainly true. The President, through the representatives, now have almost complete control of industry. He permits unions to take possession and then tell who may be hired. His representatives tell what men may be discharged. His representatives tell what loans are good at the banks. He has the power to issue $3,000,000,000 worth of new money and power to further change the value of a dollar; the power to make tariffs and congress has the power to determine what part, if any, profits can be retained by the producer.

Oh, Yeah?

General Hugh S. JOHNSON Says

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Uncle

Danny's coming congress of Hillputians will be worth watching. It isn't altogether clear what rule Uncle Danny used to select 500 little fellows in business to round out the President's program of conferences with business on his depression, but the rule had to be good. It is easy to suspect that we are about to witness a hand-picked—not to say "packed"—performance.

The administration has been careful to distinguish what it calls big business—which it regards as a big bum—from little business—which it says is the object of its tenderest affection. It seems to say that while all of big business opposes it, little business is behind it to a man.

In this atmosphere, it would never, never do to permit the assembly here of a lot of savagely angry little tribesmen and permit them to pull off an Igorrote can-can or a Sioux sun-dance of red fire and war-hoops.

To prevent precisely that, required some very skillful picking. In journeying to and fro in this country and talking to little fellows in business—both singly and in groups—I find them, by and large, hotter and more hostile than the grand sachems of big business.

Business faltered last year just when they were beginning to see daylight for the first time in five years. They know that it wasn't due to anything business didn't big or little business. They know that people suddenly seemed to become afraid to spend or invest money freely. Rightly or wrongly, they blame the administration.

The undistributed profits taxes hit many of them harder than they did the big corporations, because few had any accumulated surplus with which to pay their debts, repair their factories, and expand their operations.

They, least of all, are able to follow the President's advice to

(by deduction, I think, look it up in Bain's Logic) that if a Jap sentinel was not afraid to slap the American then the Japanese army and navy would not be afraid to attack the whole American navy and army. But honestly boys, "I smell a rat."

"There is something dead in Denmark."

"There is an Ethiopian in the wood pile."

If congress had wanted to keep the peace and stay out of war, it could have purchased a baseball mask for every man in the diplomatic service, much cheaper than they can build ships and airplanes. All danger of war would have been removed. But, we would still have a surplus of boys and girls, as the congress seems to think.

You understand you use the boys for cannon fodder and girls for Red Cross nurses in the hospitals where, the bombs fall thickest in modern warfare. Can't you read between the lines?

Now, boys and girls we are going to need you as soon as school closes. You know you will be given a report, showing grades, attendance, etc. We want you to help us in this year's campaign. The first thing you do is to write our 21 congressmen from California, please, to bring home with them a report card, showing how they voted on each measure, and how often they missed the roll calls. If they cannot show a good report, we will elect someone else. Boys and girls, I am going to tell you another secret: keep it to yourselves.

We have 531 congressmen, and about one-half of them play "hooky" and the other half have to do double duty.

Just think boys and girls 25 years hence you'll be running this country, while dad and mother sit on the front seat you just do a little diplomatic backseat driving.

From start to finish, the urban Secretary of Commerce undertook here one of the most difficult assignments of his career—almost as difficult as piloting a Central Park swan boat through the Niagara Rapids. He may not be able to pull it off without some untoward outburst. I have seen many such gatherings in the N.R.A. code hearings. But I never saw one in which some unsuspected solo artist with an unlovely voice didn't break down and crash the sweet harmony of a love chorus prearranged by some trade association.

There may be some such sing-songs cutting out of tune at the coming concert, but my bet is on Uncle

Danny on the general result. In four years as conductor of his futile Business Advisory Council, not one stringent note of discord ever leaked out to offend the public ear—and those were business big shots. If he could handle surplus with which to pay their debts, repair their factories, and expand their operations.

Editor Register:

We have one of the finest crops of boys and girls in our schools that we have ever had. There is no overproduction, either. When properly trained and equipped for the duties and obligations of life, they are our greatest asset.

For the last five years the congress of the United States has adopted a program of destruction, for whatever it deemed an overproduction.

I want to let you boys and girls in on a secret: From circumstantial evidence, we learn, that the congress has convictions that we have a surplus of boys and girls in the United States. You can't kill them off like pigs. The voters would not endorse that method, although it would be cheaper, and quicker than the round-about method the congress has adopted. But for the men in congress to keep the confidence and support of the voters, they have to kill off boys and girls by "circumlocution". Note: They appropriated $800 million dollars for ships and airplanes, but not one dollar for education.

Why educate a boy for cannon-fodder? The farmers did not fatten the pigs to be killed off, to get rid of a surplus. Now, boys you can read between the lines. The next step, we read about is that of a Jap sentinel slaps the face of a clerk in the diplomatic service.

Whether the clerk was insolent and abusive to the sentinel or whether the steel and ammunition manufacturers persuaded the sentinel to do the slapping act we do not know.

We are informed the congress got very much excited, and readily voted the greatest peace time defense fund in the history of the world. The congress reasoned

Editor Register:

Why not live your religion instead of airing your religious beliefs to an uninterested public? People should spend more time in the practice of their own beliefs, and leave the other fellow to his.

After all, who cares if E. O. Colbeck believes in the Bible, or whether William J. Heath's feelings are hurt because Colbeck has called Christ a "Devil" or the Bible, "an old Jew Book."

Religion is much like liquor, one should use it in moderation, or as much as it is safe for him to absorb. Wouldn't it be better for these two persons, Colbeck and Heath, to spend their spare time trying to aid the down-trodden people, seeking out the causes and finding a way to shed the evil social yoke which has been placed upon them by a social standard.

Cleaning up the slums, aiding in finding the cause and cure of diseases. Because of their mentality and in their spare time they could aid a great deal in bringing out into the open more publishable material concerning "Social diseases," the real menace to this country.
